The Long March Ed Jocelyn,Andrew McEwen,2006 The authors set off to retrace the Red Army's journey and record the experiences of the last remaining witnesses and participants of the Long March They found history alive all along the route including Tibetans whose accounts the Chinese censors wanted to ban and sensationally the woman who may be Mao's long lost daughter This book is based on eye witness evidence and contemporary records It contrasts starkly not only with the official version but also with recent claims that the March was a fraud The Long March really did happen but not as Mao told it Bringing together the historic event with images of changing society and their won march a remarkable feat of endurance itself the authors offer an exclusive picture of China past and present BACK COVER From Revolution To Politics
