China Year:

The China Year Book Henry George Wandesforde Woodhead, Henry Thurburn Montague Bell, 1914 The China Year Book, 1925 The China Christian Year Book Edwin Carlyle Lobenstein, Abbe Livingston Warnshuis, Frank Joseph Rawlinson, Henry Theodore Hodgkin, 1911 The China Mission Year Book, 1911 History of Economic Relations between Russia and China M.I. Sladkovskii, 2017-07-05 This book was originally written as a historical treatise to demonstrate that the development of economic ties between Russia and China is the logical outcome of a centuries old friendship between these neighboring peoples a friendship which accords with their fundamental interests and is of general benefit to all mankind In the post Soviet and post Maoist era these consensual tendencies are even stronger The original publication of this translation in 1966 when its central thesis had long been abandoned and refuted by both sides is still of value and not just as an ironic comment on the theorists and systemizers of history For this better examples are already available in every book shop and on the shelves of every library Rather the work demonstrates that sharing a common socialist ideology is insufficient to overcome animosities of history and national rivalries The student of Sino Soviet relations will find much of interest here The book still represents a work of considerable scholarship even though its ostensible raison d'être has been abolished Armed with the knowledge that the protagonists have accepted some of the author's reservations and have reversed their positions on a number of points objectionable to him the reader will be able to achieve a clear and comprehensive understanding of the subject Partisanship was never particularly subtle in debates within Marxist or Maoist circles The virulence of the language in some sections of the book which have been rendered accurately with no toning down provides the reader with an insight into the background of China's continuing intransigence in international policies The Theory and Practice of China's Tourism Economy (1978-2017) Peng Zhou, 2019-08-23 This book is devoted to the analysis of the three main tasks of China's tourism development Firstly the theory of tourism development since the initiation of reform and opening up Secondly the practice and problems in infrastructure building Thirdly the mold and policy used in the course of development The book pursues three major objectives firstly to portray the stage of development secondly to analyze the specific experience in China's case thirdly to review theory and try to put forward advice on investment and management The Handbook of China's Financial System Marlene Amstad, Guofeng Sun, Wei Xiong, Darrell Duffie, 2020-11-17 The Chinese economy is now easily one of the most important and closely scrutinized economies in the world Relatively minuscule changes in predictions of how the Chinese economy will perform can drive up or down stocks and the price of oil and other commodities At the heart of how the Chinese economy works is its financial system but the Chinese financial system is vastly different than most people in the West can understand How do house prices work for example in a country where the very concept of property ownership is significantly different than our own This edited volume will serve as a standard reference guide to China's financial system With eighteen chapters the handbook features

overviews on the banking sector the core of China's financial system and the key channel for implementing China's monetary policy China's ongoing reforms and the quickly growing bond and money markets among other topics Each chapter is written by a leading expert in the field and as a whole the list of contributors represents an impressive mix of leading scholars and high level policy officials some with first hand knowledge of setting and carrying out Chinese financial policy The handbook will serve as the first real authoritative volume of literature in the field and will shed extensive new light on the links between China's financial system and the real economy

China's Unequal Treaties Dong Wang,2005-10-01 This study based on primary sources deals with the linguistic development and polemical uses of the expression Unequal Treaties which refers to the treaties China signed between 1842 and 1946 Although this expression has occupied a central position in both Chinese collective memory and Chinese and English historiographies this is the first book to offer an in depth examination of China's encounters with the outside world as manifested in the rhetoric surrounding the Unequal Treaties Author Dong Wang argues that competing forces within China have narrated and renarrated the history of the treaties in an effort to consolidate national unity international independence and political legitimacy and authority In the twentieth century she shows China's experience with these treaties helped to determine their use of international law Of great relevance for students of contemporary China and Chinese history as well as Chinese international law and politics this book illuminates how various Chinese political actors have defined and redefined the past using the framework of the Unequal Treaties

Hai guan zong shui wu si shu,1923 Labor and the Chinese Revolution S. Bernard Thomas,2020-09-23 In the two decade period from 1928 to 1948 the proletarian themes and issues underlying the Chinese Communist Party's ideological utterances were shrouded in rhetoric designed perhaps as much to disguise as to chart actual class strategies Rhetoric notwithstanding a careful analysis of such pronouncements is vitally important in following and evaluating the party's changing lines during this key revolutionary period The function of the proletariat in the complex of policy issues and leadership struggles which developed under the precarious circumstances of those years had an importance out of all proportion to labor's relatively minor role in the post 1927 Communist led revolution 1 2 China's Millions ,1900 The North-China Herald & Supreme Court & Consular Gazette ,1913 Orientalia ,1926 An American Transplant Mary B.
