been both a cornerstone of civic identity and from the perspective of primarily white landowners and pragmatic agricultural industrialists essential for maintaining the local workforce Carol Lynn McKibben draws on extensive original research including oral histories and never before seen archives of local business groups tracing Salinas's ever changing demographics and the challenges and triumphs of Chinese Japanese Filipino and Mexican immigrants as well as Depression era Dust Bowl migrants and white ethnic Europeans McKibben takes us from Salinas's nineteenth century beginnings as the economic engine of California's Central Coast up through the disproportionate impact of Covid 19 on communities of color today especially farmworkers who already live on the margins Throughout the century plus of Salinas history that McKibben explores she shows how the political and economic stability of Salinas rested on the ability of nonwhite minorities to achieve a measure of middle class success and inclusion in the cultural life of the city without overturning a system based in white supremacy This timely book deepens our understanding of race relations economic development and the impact of changing demographics on regional politics in urban California and in the United States as a whole

Routledge Critical Companion to Race and Architecture Felipe Hernández, Itohan Osayimwese, 2025-10-31 This book explores the malleability of race as a construct one subject to continuous redefinitions in different times cultures and places While race has been deployed historically to establish hierarchies in a modern colonial world it also has acquired the capacity to challenge those hierarchies enabling critical engagements with epistemic positions that have been excluded from univocal Eurocentric architectural narratives The volume expands the discourse on racializing concepts and categories beyond the traditional Africa North America axis examining many issues that have been overlooked in the field of architecture This broader range of topics provides for a more comprehensive understanding of how race is constructed and represented in architectural theory and practice globally Written by an international and influential cast of contributors the structure of the book permits a detailed revision of the most current theoretical debates on race Each part deals with a specific challenge at a particular scale Ultimately the book embraces discussions about theory urban and regional debates architectural design at the scale of the building history and education exploring the concept of race in all aspects of the discipline It is essential reading for anyone studying or working in the built environment

Beyond Description Ryan Bishop, John Phillips, Wei-Wei Yeo, 2004-08-02 Treated from a range of disciplinary perspectives this book addresses and challenges issues of space historicity architecture and textuality by focusing on Singapore's singular position in the region and as a global city

Remembering the Samsui Women Kelvin E. Y. Low, 2014-03-15 Remembering the Samsui Women tells the story of women from the Samsui area of Guangdong China who migrated to Singapore during a period of economic and natural calamity leaving their families behind In their new country many found work in the construction industry while others worked in households or factories where they were called hong tou jin translated literally as red head scarf after the headgear that protected them from the sun Contributing to current debates in the fields of social memory and migration studies this is the first book to examine how the Samsui women remember their own migratory experiences and how they in turn are remembered as pioneering figures in both Singapore and China

Monsoon Marketplace Elmo Gonzaga, 2023-12-05 Provides vivid accounts of commercial and leisure spaces that captivated the public imagination in the past but have since been destroyed forgotten or refurbished Monsoon Marketplace uncovers the entangled vernacular cultures of capitalist modernity mass consumption and media spectatorship in two understudied postcolonial Asian cities across three crucial historical moments Juxtaposing Manila and Singapore it analyzes print and audiovisual representations of popular commercial and leisure spaces during the colonial occupation in the 1930s national development in the 1960s and neoliberal globalization in the 2000s Engaging with the work of creators including Nick Joaquin Kevin Kwan and P Ramlee it discusses figures of female shoppers in 1930s Manila languid expatriates in 1930s Singapore street hawkers in 1960s Singapore youthful activists in 1960s Manila call center agents in 2000s Manila and super rich investors in 2000s Singapore Looking at the historical transformation of Calle Escolta Avenida Rizal Raffles Place and Orchard Road it focuses on Crystal Arcade the Manila Carnival the Great World and New World Amusement Parks and Change Alley all of which had once captivated the public imagination but have since vanished from the cityscape Instead of treating capitalism media and modernity as overarching systems or processes the book examines how their configurations and experiences are contingent variable pluralistic and archipelagic Diverging from critical theories and cultural studies that see consumerism and spectatorship as sources of alienation docility and fantasy it explores how they create new possibilities for agency collectivity and resistance
