

NOTHING GOLD CAN STAY

BY ROBERT FROST

Nature's first green is gold,
Her hardest hue to hold.
Her early leaf's a flower;
But only so an hour.
Then leaf subsides to leaf.
So Eden sank to grief,
So dawn goes down to day.
Nothing gold can stay.

22 And 50 Poems:

22 and 50 Poems Edward Estlin Cummings, 2001 Combines twenty two new poems from Cummings Collected Works and the entirety of 50 poems showcasing his satirical epigrams love poems and syntactical anagrams Rethinking the North American Long Poem Ridvan Askin, Julius Greve, 2024-12-15 For centuries critics poets poet scholars and philosophers have either openly proclaimed or tacitly assumed the long poem as the highest expression of literary ambition and excellence Rethinking the North American Long Poem focuses on the North American variant of this notorious form notorious because of its often forbidding and difficult character particularly with respect to the dialectics of content and form aesthetics and politics matter and genre In nine essays and a contextual introduction the editors and contributors scrutinize seminal long poems by North American writers including Walt Whitman s Song of Myself Ezra Pound s The Cantos Muriel Rukeyser s The Book of the Dead and Charles Olson s The Maximus Poems They also explore recent efforts that have redefined or reopened the case of the long poem including Rachel Blau DuPlessis s Drafts M NourbeSe Philip s Zong and Claudia Rankine s Citizen Taking the categories of form matter and experiment as frames of conceptual reference the book examines the ways in which material and immaterial aspects of literary practice and the philosophically and politically inscribed duality of experience and experiment are negotiated in and by North American long poems from the nineteenth century to the present Official List and Prices of Books Louisiana. Dept. of Education, 1913 Documents, Including Messages and Other Communications Ohio, 1891 Isaiah's Servant Poems According to the Septuagint Eugene Robert Ekblad, 1999 This study analyzes the Septuagint version of Isaiah s Servant Poems Isaiah 42 1 8 49 1 9 50 4 11 52 13 53 12 as a translation and unique interpretation of the Hebrew text The Septuagint version of the Servant Poems is of interest not only because it represents one of the earliest if not the first interpretations of the Hebrew text and thus an important stage in the history of exegesis of these poems but also because this translation operates a transition from Hebrew modes of thinking and expression into a Greek language and context The Septuagint version of the Servant Poems was cited by New Testament writers read and commented on as Sacred Scripture by the early Church Fathers and continues to be used by the Eastern Church This study is a helpful resource to Old Testament New Testament and Patristic scholars and theologians alike The introduction offers a methodology for classifying Septuagint differences to determine the specific exegesis and underlying theology of a given Septuagint text Differences with the Hebrew text are categorized according to linguistic explanations style the translator s difficulty determining Greek semantic equivalents for obscure Hebrew vocabulary errors or omissions etc Hebrew Vorlagen non linguistic explanations like contextual and intertextual exegesis and combinations of linguistic and non linguistic factors The author identifies over 270 differences with the Masoretic Text in a presentation of the Septuagint text of each poem side by side with the Masoretic Text Qumran variants are compared with the Masoretic Text and Septuagint to help classify Septuagint differences to determine which may be signs of the Septuagint s unique exegesis and theology The Septuagint s numerous differences are bold faced in the English translation of each poem before the author presents a detailed verse by verse literary analysis of the Septuagint in the wider context of Isaiah 1 66 and the Greek Pentateuch The author argues that the vast majority of Septuagint differences with the Masoretic Text in Isaiah s Servant Poems reflect contextual and intertextual exegesis The Septuagint version expresses theological perspectives that are at times similar and often distinct from the Masoretic Text In a final chapter the author draws on the exegesis of each poem in preceding chapters to present the theology visible in the Septuagint version of Isaiah s Servant Poems concluding with an appendix that catalogues textual differences between the Septuagint and the Masoretic Text and a biblical index
