The Publisher and Bookseller, 1929 Official organ of the book trade of the United Kingdom The Best American Short Stories ... and the Yearbook of the American Short Story, 1929 The Canadian Short Story Reingard M. Nischik, 2007 Beginning in the 1890s reaching its first full realization by modernist writers in the 1920s and brought to its heyday during the Canadian Renaissance starting in the 1960s the short story has become Canada s flagship genre It continues to attract the country s most accomplished and innovative writers today among them Margaret Atwood Mavis Gallant Alice Munro Carol Shields and many others Yet in contrast to the stature and popularity of the genre and the writers who partake in it surprisingly little literary criticism and theory has been devoted to the Canadian short story This collection redresses that imbalance by providing the first collection of critical interpretations of a range of thirty well known and often anthologized Canadian short stories from the genre s beginnings through the twentieth century A historical survey of the genre introduces the volume and a timeline comparing the genre s development in Canada the US and Great Britain via representative examples completes it The collection is geared both to specialists in and to students of Canadian literature For the latter it is of particular benefit that the volume provides not only a collection of interpretations but a comprehensive introduction to the history of the Canadian short story Reingard M Nischik is professor and chair of American Literature at the University of Constance Germany The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record, 1930 Post-Jungian Psychology and the Short Stories of Ray Bradbury and Kurt Vonnegut Steve Gronert Ellerhoff, 2016-02-22 In this book Steve Gronert Ellerhoff explores short stories by Ray Bradbury and Kurt Vonnegut written between 1943 and 1968 with a post Jungian approach Drawing upon archetypal theories of myth from Joseph Campbell James Hillman and their forbearer C G Jung Ellerhoff demonstrates how short fiction follows archetypal patterns that can illuminate our understanding of the authors their times and their culture In practice a post Jungian methodology is shown to yield great insights for the literary criticism of short fiction Chapters in this volume carefully contextualise and historicize each story including Bradbury and Vonnegut s earliest and most imaginatively fantastic works The archetypal constellations shaping Vonnegut s early works are shown to be war and fragmentation while those in Bradbury s are family and the wholeness of the sun Analysis is complemented by the explored significance of illustrations that featured alongside the stories in their first publications By uncovering the ways these popular writers redressed old myths in new tropes and coined new narrative elements for hopes and fears born of their era the book reveals a fresh method which can be applied to all imaginative short stories increasing understanding and critical engagement Post Jungian Psychology and the Short Stories of Ray Bradbury and Kurt Vonnegut is an important text for a number of fields from Jungian and Post Jungian studies to short story theories and American studies to Bradbury and Vonnegut studies Scholars and students of literature will come away with a renewed appreciation for an archetypal approach to criticism while the book will also be of great interest to practising depth psychologists seeking to incorporate short stories into therapy

The Chinese Short Story Patrick Hanan,1973 During the centuries of its popularity early Chinese vernacular fiction was never adequately preserved or even documented The great popular appeal of the short stories saved them from oblivion but it was only in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries that they were first collected and published Mr Hanan s erudite study is the first thorough attempt to uncover the history of the Chinese short story Using a variety of techniques but principally that of stylistic analysis the author solves the fundamental problem of dating the stories in terms of periods He is able to place each story in one of three broad categories early ca 1250 1450 middle ca 1400 1575 and late ca 1550 1627 and to assign some of them to the earlier or later part of the time span In many cases he offers evidence of sources and influences place of origin and possible or probable authorship On the basis of the author s research it is possible to see in minutely researched detail how the short story developed in China what kind of men composed it its relationship to other kinds of literature and the main social preoccupations with which it deals The results of Mr Hanan s study are vitally important to all scholars of Chinese literature Historians and linguists will also find it valuable as a model of the innovative use of stylistic analysis
