Concise Companion To Contemporary British Fiction:

A Concise Companion to Contemporary British Fiction James F. English, 2008-04-15 A Concise Companion to Contemporary British Fiction offers an authoritative overview of contemporary British fiction in its social political and economic contexts Focuses on the fiction that has emerged since the late 1970s roughly since the start of the Thatcher era Comprises original essays from major scholars Topics range from the rise and fall of the postcolonial novel to controversies over the celebrity author The emphasis is on the whole fiction scene from bookstores and prizes to the changing economics of film adaptation Enables students to read contemporary works of British fiction with a much clearer sense of where they fit within British cultural life Handbook of the English Novel of the Twentieth and Twenty-First Centuries Christoph

Reinfandt, 2017-06-12 The Handbook systematically charts the trajectory of the English novel from its emergence as the foremost literary genre in the early twentieth century to its early twenty first century status of eccentric eminence in new media environments Systematic chapters address The English Novel as a Distinctly Modern Genre The Novel in the Economy Genres Gender performativity masculinities feminism queer and The Burden of Representation class and ethnicity Extended contextualized close readings of more than twenty key texts from Joseph Conrad s Heart of Darkness 1899 to Tom McCarthy s Satin Island 2015 supplement the systematic approach and encourage future research by providing overviews of reception and theoretical perspectives A Concise Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Drama Nadine

Holdsworth, Mary Luckhurst, 2008 Focusing on major and emerging playwrights institutions and various theatre practices this Concise Companion examines the key issues in British and Irish theatre since 1979 Written by leading international scholars in the field this collection offers new ways of thinking about the social political and cultural contexts within which specific aspects of British and Irish theatre have emerged and explores the relationship between these contexts and the works produced It investigates why particular issues and practices have emerged as significant in the theatre of this period

Zadie Smith Tracey Lorraine Walters, 2008 Zadie Smith Critical Essays is a timely collection of critical articles examining how Zadie Smith s novels and short stories interrogate race postcolonialism and identity Essays explore the various ways Smith approaches issues of race either by deconstructing notions of race or interrogating the complexity of biracial identity and how Smith takes on contemporary debates concerning notions of Britishness Englishness and Black Britishness Some essays also consider the shifting identities adopted by those who identify with both British and West Indian South Asian or East Asian ancestry Other essays explore Smith s contemporary postcolonial approach to Britain s colonial legacy and the difference between how immigrants and first generation British born children deal with cultural alienation and displacement This thought provoking collection is a much needed critical tool for students and researchers in both contemporary British literature and Diasporic literature and culture Back cover Maggie Gee: Writing the Condition-of-England Novel

Mine Özyurt Kiliç, 2013-03-14 The first female Chair of the Royal Society of Literature and translated into thirteen languages

Maggie Gee is writing the Victorian condition of England novel for 21st century Britain In the first critical study of Gee s work Mine zyurt Kili identifies the specific social problems her novels address and explains the social consciousness similarities Gee shares with the Victorians Analyzing how Gee adjusts the condition of England novel to reflect contemporary Britain enables zyurt Kili to reveal the accuracy of Gee s rich portraits of Britain She focuses on Gee s ability to cut across the boundaries of race class and gender mix voices from the margin with the majority and challenge and change the idea of the mainstream As an active self conscious and critical participant in the literary world Gee paints a panoramic view of society Her critiques of class race and the world of publishing allow zyurt Kili to cover a wide range of topics and detail how English fiction shapes and influences and is shaped and influenced by the contemporary literary market

Cosmopolitanism and the Postnational ,2015-08-17 In recent years postnational theory has become a primary tool for the analysis of European integration Though interpretations of the concept vary there is a wide consensus about postnationalism as a way to forge a European identity beyond a particular national history In line with the German historical context in which this key concept was formulated in the first place postnationalism is considered to be an adaptation of Kantian cosmopolitanism to the conditions of the modern world This collection of essays is the first to systematically and comparatively explore the links between postnationalism and cosmopolitanism within the context of the New Europe Contributors Susana Ara jo Sibylle Baumbach Helena Buescu John Crosetti Maria DiBattista C sar Dom nguez Soren Frank Birgit Mara Kaiser Dorothy Odartey Wellington Maria Esteves Pereira Karen Margrethe Simonsen Aysegul Turan

Constructing a New Canon of Post-1980s Indian English Fiction Sahdev Luhar,Madhurita Choudhary,2017-08-21 The literary canon implies the evaluation or estimation of certain literary texts as the most important during a particular time The canon is not merely a set of texts it is a set of standards evaluative procedures and values Belonging to a canon confers a guarantee of literary greatness A canon is formed by a particular group to channelize cultural hegemony over others or can be constructed by a governed group to bring about cultural symmetry The rise of diverse literatures in English in different parts of the world after the colonial rule of England was the consequence of an urge to articulate a cultural equilibrium or an urge to strike back The process of canon formation is also a focused and bigoted act and is always carried out to accomplish certain self centred objectives It is commonly accepted that canon formation is executed to accomplish or naturalize certain ideological functions In the sphere of Indian English literature Indian English fiction after the end of the 1980s has emerged as a new canon This book looks into the process of literary canon formation in Indian universities and examines such fiction as an alternative literary canon and as an anti imperialistic response to the British literary canon The book ascertains the anti imperialistic design involved in forming the canon of post 1980 Indian English fiction examines the gradual emerging trends in such fiction and discerns the role of language culture and native ethos in the formation of a canon It also differentiates post 1980s Indian English fiction from British fiction bhasa fiction and even from pre 1980s Indian English fiction A Concise Companion to Contemporary British and Irish Drama Nadine Holdsworth, Mary Luckhurst, 2013-04-12 Focusing on major and emerging playwrights institutions and various theatre practices this Concise Companion examines the key issues in British and Irish theatre since 1979 Written by leading international scholars in the field this collection offers new ways of thinking about the social political and cultural contexts within which specific aspects of British and Irish theatre have emerged and explores the relationship between these contexts and the works produced It investigates why particular issues and practices have emerged as significant in the theatre of this period Narrating Poverty and Precarity in Britain Barbara Korte, Frédéric Regard, 2014-10-15 Poverty and precarity have gained a new societal and political presence in the twenty first century s advanced economies This is reflected in cultural production which this book discusses for a wide range of media and genres from the novel to reality television With a focus on Britain its chapters divide their attention between current representations of poverty and important earlier narratives that have retained significant relevance today The book s contributions discuss the representation of social suffering with attention to agencies of enunciation ethical implications of voice and listening limits of narratability the pitfalls of sensationalism voyeurism and sentimentalism potentials and restrictions inherent in specific representational techniques modes and genres cultural markets for poverty and precarity Overall the book suggests that analysis of poverty narratives requires an intersection of theoretical reflection and a close reading of texts Reassessing the Twentieth-Century Canon N. Allen, D. Simmons, 2014-06-17 The collection brings together experts in the field of twentieth century writing to provide a volume that is both comprehensive and innovative in its discussion of a set of newly canonical texts The book includes new applications of philosophical and critical thinking to established texts A Concise Companion to American Fiction, 1900 - 1950 Peter Stoneley, Cindy Weinstein, 2008-02-04 Offers an authoritative overview of American fiction from 1900 1950 focusing on the literature that developed out of the social cultural and political changes which occurred in the first part of 20th century This title examines the period s formative events such as the Depression and the two World Wars and their representation in literature MLA International Bibliography of Books and Articles on the Modern Languages and Literatures ,2008 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2009 American Book Publishing Record ,2006 The State of the Novel Dominic Head, 2008-09-02 Part of the Blackwell Manifestos series The State of the Novel offers a lively yet rigorous investigation into the state and future of the contemporary British novel written by an expert in the field Evaluates the state of the serious literary novel and novel criticism Prominent treatment is paid to the internationalization of the novel in English Offers a manifesto on contemporary fiction from an expert in this field Dominic Head is best known for his Cambridge Introduction to Modern British Fiction 1950 2000 Establishes the shared interests of contemporary theorists of the novel cultural commentators and novel consumers An ideal supplementary text for students and faculty interested in the novel and
