Chapin,Claiborne Dawes,Alice Moulton,2001 Concord s photographic history begins in the last third of the eighteenth century and in this new collection of then and now photographs there is an abundance of the earliest images that capture the old town and its townspeople Modern images chosen for their resemblances or comparisons illustrate the originally rural community s transformation into a modern suburb and evoke thoughts of history s ever turning progression Many of the older images in Then Now Concord have been given to the authors especially for this publication Many are part of the Concord Free Public Library s Special Collection Most of the modern photographs have been made by photographers Claiborne Dawes and Alice Moulton Their images show such compelling comparisons as fathers and sons old houses we were parted so that for many years I never saw him I said that the materials for any Life of him were in the hands of others who would probably use them at the proper time Then Mr Howland suggested that without attempting anything which should be called a Life of Mr Lowell I might write for the Outlook a review as it were of the last sixty years among literary and scientific people in Boston and its neighborhood I do not think he wanted my autobiography nor had I any thought of preparing it for him but he suggested the book which is in the reader s hands This was in April 1897 Our Paper ,1895
