Schrire, 2009-10-30 International Relations is a component of Encyclopedia of Institutional and Infrastructural Resources in the global Encyclopedia of Life Support Systems EOLSS which is an integrated compendium of twenty one Encyclopedias The Theme considers the following topics on The Development of International Relations International Political Economy and International Relations and Contemporary World Issues These two volumes are aimed at the following five major target audiences University and College students Educators Professional practitioners Research personnel and Policy analysts managers and decision makers and NGOs The Postwar Decline of American Newspapers, 1945-1965 David R. Davies, 2006-07-30 On the surface the American newspaper industry appears to have changed little from 1945 to 1965 remaining both healthy and prosperous The number of newspapers in 1965 was about the same as in 1945 while during the twenty year period advertising revenues increased substantially despite new competition from television Just as in 1945 the vast majority of newspapers went to press with improved but old fashioned letterpress methods in 1965 And newspaper reporters still professed a strong if now somewhat shaken faith in the federal government at the end of the twenty years But the surface appearance of both stability and profitability obscured profound change In the two decades after World War II the business of newspaper publishing changed significantly in myriad ways By 1965 editors and publishers had recognized the extent of these changes and were beginning to adjust Each of the changes was significant of its own accord and the range of challenges throughout the period combined to transform newspapers and the nation they served by 1965 This transformation was evident to varying degrees in newspapers content their production methods their economic position within the overall media marketplace and their relationship with government Newspapers some more than others made strides to keep up with and overcome some of these challenges But in each of these areas newspapers as a group were slow to respond to the problems facing journalism The Dilemmas of Identity George Schöpflin, 2010 American Studies , 2002 America's Miracle Man in Vietnam Seth Jacobs, 2004 Argues that American cultural conceptions of religion and race during the 1950s played a crucial role in framing an ideology through which U S policymakers understood their options in Vietnam The Cold War John Lewis Gaddis, 2006-12-26 Outstanding The most accessible distillation of that conflict yet written The Boston Globe Energetically written and lucid it makes an ideal introduction to the subject The New York Times The dean of Cold War historians The New York Times now presents the definitive account of the global confrontation that dominated the last half of the twentieth century Drawing on newly opened archives and the reminiscences of the major players John Lewis Gaddis explains not just what happened but why from the months in 1945 when the U S and the U S S R went from alliance to antagonism to the barely averted holocaust of the Cuban Missile Crisis to the maneuvers of Nixon and Mao Reagan and Gorbachev Brilliant accessible almost Shakespearean in its drama The Cold War stands as a triumphant summation of the era that more than any other shaped our own Gaddis is also the author of On Grand Strategy Environment and Planning ,2007 International interdisciplinary journal discussing the relations between Society and Space Space is broadly conceived from landscapes of the body to global geographies from cyberspace to old growth forests as metaphorical and material as theoretical construct and empirical fact Covers both practical politics and the abstractions of social theory Rapport ,1999 The Cold War Odd Arne Westad,2017-09-05 The definitive history of the Cold War and its impact around the world We tend to think of the Cold War as a bounded conflict a clash of two superpowers the United States and the Soviet Union born out of the ashes of World War II and coming to a dramatic end with the collapse of the Soviet Union But in this major new work Bancroft Prize winning scholar Odd Arne Westad argues that the Cold War must be understood as a global ideological confrontation with early roots in the Industrial Revolution and ongoing repercussions around the world In The Cold War Westad offers a new perspective on a century when great power rivalry and ideological battle transformed every corner of our globe From Soweto to Hollywood Hanoi and Hamburg young men and women felt they were fighting for the future of the world The Cold War may have begun on the perimeters of Europe but it had its deepest reverberations in Asia Africa and the Middle East where nearly every community had to choose sides And these choices continue to define economies and regimes across the world Today many regions are plagued with environmental threats social divides and ethnic conflicts that stem from this era Its ideologies influence China Russia and the United States Iraq and Afghanistan have been destroyed by the faith in purely military solutions that emerged from the Cold War Stunning in its breadth and revelatory in its perspective this book expands our understanding of the Cold War both geographically and chronologically and offers an engaging new history of how today s world was created The Cold War Bradley Lightbody,1999 The Cold War examines the complex arguments which divided East and West following the end of the Second World War and analyzes its eight major phases including the emergence of the Cold War Coexistence and Detente Glasnost in the late 1980s Combining factual overview and background discussion of the key issues such as the nuclear threat and who if anyone won the Cold War with analysis of source material students will find this a must have in the study of this major historical event The Best Books for Academic Libraries ,2002 Books recommended for undergraduate and college libraries listed by Library of Congress Classification Numbers
