NO SURPRISE

What we learn from the sexist remarks toward ICC judge Iulia Motoc

The task is massive and we have a long way to go, but combatting gendered attacks starts with an attitude of intolerance toward such vile remarks. There is no small, insignificant comment, and there is no instance of discrimination against women hackneyed enough to be taken lightly—because while remarks such as these are of no surprise to us, we must never be desensitized to oppression to the point of inaction.
