Saint Marks Jonathan Goldberg, 2018-12-04 Saint Marks invokes and pluralizes the figure of Mark in order to explore relations between painting and writing Emphasizing that the saint is not a singular biographical individual in the various biblical and hagiographic texts that involve someone so named the book takes as its ultimate concern the kinds of material life that outlive the human subject From the incommensurate anachronic instances in which Saint Mark can be located among them as Evangelist or as patron saint of Venice the book traces Mark's afterlives within art sacred texts and literature in conversation with such art historians and philosophers as Aby Warburg Giorgio Agamben Georges Didi Huberman T J Clark Adrian Stokes and Jean Luc Nancy Goldberg begins in sixteenth century Venice with a series of paintings by Gentile and Giovanni Bellini Tintoretto and others that have virtually nothing to do with biblical texts He turns then to the legacy of John Ruskin's Stones of Venice and through it to questions about what painting does as painting A final chapter turns to ancient texts considering the Gospel of St Mark together with its double the so called Secret Gospel that has occasioned controversy for its homoerotic implications The posthumous persistence of a life is what the gospel named Mark calls the Kingdom of God Saints have posthumous lives but so too do paintings and texts This major interdisciplinary study by one of our most astute cultural critics extends what might have been a purely theological subject to embrace questions central to cultural practice from the ancient world to the present

Cézanne's Gravity Carol Armstrong, 2018-11-13 A transformative study freeing the artist from outdated art historical narratives and revealing his work as newly strange again Cézanne's Gravity is an ambitious reassessment of the paintings of Paul Cézanne 1839-1906 Whereas previous studies have often looked at the artist's work for its influence on his successors and on the development of abstraction Carol Armstrong untethers it from this timeline examining Cézanne's painting as a phenomenological and intellectual endeavor Armstrong uses an interdisciplinary approach to analyze Cézanne's work pairing the painter with artists and thinkers who came after him including Roger Fry Virginia Woolf Albert Einstein Maurice Merleau Ponty Rainer Maria Rilke R D Laing and Helen Frankenthaler Through these pairings Armstrong addresses diverse subjects that illuminate Cézanne's painting from the nonlinear narratives of modernist literature and the ways in which space and time act on objects to color sensation and the schizophrenic mind Cézanne's Gravity attends to both the physicality of the artist's works and the weight they bear on the history of art This distinctive study not only invites its readers to view Cézanne's paintings with fresh eyes but also offers a new methodology for art historical inquiry outside linear narratives one truly fitting for our time

Conversations with Cezanne Paul Cézanne, 2001-07-10 This book gathers the commentary of people who knew the painter Paul Cezanne especially in his later years Now seen as one of the most influential of modern painters in his 40s he returned to his village of Aix en Provence where he worked in near obscurity and with great dedication until his death in 1906

Spanish Art in Britain and Ireland, 1750-1920 Enriqueta Harris, 2010 This is a study wholly devoted to the reception of Spanish art in Britain and Ireland It examines the sources and extent of knowledge of Spanish art in the British Isles during an age of increasing contacts particularly in the aftermath of the Peninsular War
