Benchmarks Of Quality In The Church:

Benchmarks of Quality in the Church Norman Shawchuck, Gustave Rath, 1994 The particular emphasis of this book is on quality as expressed in active growing churches around the country It establishes the standards of quality that congregations must seek to achieve It illustrates processes that manifest quality in churches through a continuous hypothetical narrative that takes place in a church board Charts diagrams statistics and quality jargon are kept to a minimum This book is part of an overall product extension of the Shawchuck Marketing Leading Managing trilogy Selling Out the Church Philip D. Kenneson, Jim Street, 2003-07-24 Marketing the church is hot For many church leaders marketing might even be the first article of their creed which goes something like this We believe that our church determines its identity and mission through the tactics of marketing strategies Theologians Kenneson and Street offer a thoughtful and provocative protest with a foreword from Stanley Hauerwas The authors expose the theological presuppositions that inform the marketing project and help us to see that the marketer's presumption that form can be separated from content of the gospel betrays an understanding of the gospel that cannot help betraying the gift that is Christ The authors propose an alternative constructive account of the church's mission and purpose that is not based on exchange of value but on reminding us that the gospel is always a gift a gift that makes impossible any presumptions that there can be an exchange between human beings and God that is rooted in the satisfaction of our untrained needs The cross and resurrection challenge the world's understanding of what our needs should be The Complete Ministry Audit William M. Education Lee Harvey,Peter Knight,1996 The theme of the book is that the drive for quality in Britain and elsewhere and the reform of teaching and learning processes have not been connected organizationally or in practice change has been driven by the search for efficiency and by a quest for greater bureaucratic accountability Harvey and Knight argue that whatever the merits of these developments they have not been directly concerned to improve the quality of student learning They argue not just that student learning ought to be at the centre of discussions about quality enhancement but that the goal ought to be transformation transformation of universities with a view to transforming learners BOOK JACKET Title Summary field
