Benito Prez Galds:

The Shadow Benito Pérez Galdós, 1980 Anselmo marries a young woman Elena and his love for her causes his already unstable senses to feverishly work overtime He imagines the figure of Paris from a very sensual painting of Helen of Troy and Paris disappears from the canvas He also imagines hearing a male voice in Elena's room and upon his approach what sounds like fleeing footsteps In a rage Anselmo breaks open the door to her room He finds nothing and notices the window is closed and the interior door is locked The fright to his wife though was very real A second occurrence of hearing voices in his wife's room causes him to intrude again but this time he thinks he sees a shadow escape through the window Anselmo follows the shadow into the garden Thinking he sees the figure hiding in the well he spends all evening filling it up with rocks Anselmo feels tortured by betrayal but a few days later in his bedroom the shadow takes corporeal form as Paris from the painting They hold conversations that depress the doctor driving him mad with the realization that he will never shake such a being so he challenges Paris to a duel Even though Anselmo's shot would be deadly to a mortal Paris lives Anselmo has the being brought to his bedroom and they continue to hold conversations heightening the husband's shame at the loss of his honor

Benito Peréz Galdós and the Creative Process Walter Thomas Pattison, 1954-01-01 Benito Perez Galdos and the Creative Process was first published in 1954 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions Most critics would rank Benito Perez Galdos second only to Cervantes among the great novelists of Spain However in spite of the esteem in which he is generally held Galdos has been the subject of relatively few scholarly studies Professor Pattison by an analysis of two of Galdos novels attempts to reconstruct the creative processes that were involved in the writing of these novels This is the first time that such a critical approach has been used in the field of Spanish fiction and the resulting study is significant not only to Spanish scholars but to all students of literature seeking further insights into the fascinating and still elusive creative process Professor Pattison analyzes the novels Gloria published in 1877 and Marianela which was published the following year Both are stories of contemporary life the former having as its theme the conflict between noble religion and the fanaticism of individual religious sects and the latter presenting a story of tragic love interwoven with the social problem of the responsibilities of the rich toward the poor In tracking down the sources of ideas characters plots and viewpoints that emerge in these novels Professor Pattison worked first hand in Galdos personal library in Madrid From the notes and markings in the books and from other intimate observations the scholar detective put his finger on many of the original sources that contributed to Galdos artistic creations and identified the prototypes for fictional characters among persons Galdos knew *Benito Perez Galdos: a Study of the Traditional Lore and Customs in His "Novelas Espanolas Contemporaneas (primera Epoca)." Rudder,2015-02-05 Gald s s early writings were inspired by the French writer mile Zola a practitioner of the literary school of Naturalism This interest then turned to a type of spiritual naturalism under the influence of Russian writers including Tolstoy Dostoevsky and Turgenev whom he called his great teacher One of his most important works during this period was the novel Nazar n a kind of retelling of the life of Christ in which the main character a disgraced priest wanders about the countryside with two female companions attempting to follow the teachings of the Bible to the letter He is taken for either a saint or a mad man and at the end is shut up in an institution The publication of Nazar n was followed by its sequel Halma only six months later In this novel the protagonist an aristocratic lady named Halma after suffering great hardships decides to use her inheritance to found an idyllic Christian society harboring the needy and the sick Two of its citizens will be the priest Nazar n and one of his two women followers another will be Halma s ne er do well male cousin Urrea Her family and their friends express admiration for her high ideals but they also believe she may be just as mad as the priest and work to defeat her A fortunate denouement comes only after the unforeseen intervention of the supposedly mad priest Halma also has many points of contact with the motion picture Viridiana by Spain s great director Luis Bu uel In this film a religious novice Viridiana attempts to turn a farm into a shelter for needy beggars During her absence however the beggars wreck the house in a drunken orgy While not sharing Bu uel s artistic vision Gald s nevertheless expresses his own ideas with great imagination Dona Perfecta B Perez Galdos,2024-12 Dona Perfecta examines the conflict between tradition and modernity within a family and a small conservative town At its heart is the tension between a wealthy aunt deeply embedded in traditional values and her nephew who represents the progressive ideals of the modern world The aunt s daughter coming of age is at the center of a potential marriage arranged by family which brings together two young people from different worlds While the two fall in love their differing beliefs about religion politics and society create deep divisions The aunt fiercely protective of her traditions cannot outright reject her nephew but instead embarks on a covert battle to undermine him using legal and professional means to exert control over his life and work The mental fragility of her daughter adds another layer of complexity hinting at the psychological toll of this conflict The novel highlights the struggles of individuals caught between the pull of tradition and the allure of modernity and the emotional familial and societal conflicts that arise when love duty and ideology collide The Jew in the Novels of Benito Perez Galdos Sara E. Schyfter,1978 A study of Gald s Jewish characters and what they tell us about the place of Jews in C19th Spanish society and culture Few Spanish novelists have dealt with the problem of religion and religious commitment more comprehensively than Benito P rez Gald s His lifelong preoccupation with man in search of transcendence repeatedly led him to evaluate andcriticize the religious institutions that stifled rather than helped man in his search In the Jews Gald s saw a people who though victimized by religious intolerance managed to survive persecution and affirm an abiding faithin God He created Jewish characters throughout his long literary career and therefore presents the most comprehensive portrait of Jews as they existed in the culture the religion and fabric of C19th Spanish society
