Benjamin Constant Meconnu:

Benjamin Constant Meconnu, 1966 Religion and the Post-revolutionary Mind Arthur McCalla, 2023-03-15 The French Revolution swept away the Old Regime along with many of its ideas about epistemology history society and politics In the intellectual ferment that followed debates about religion figured prominently as diverse thinkers grappled with the philosophical and civil status of religion in a post revolutionary age Arthur McCalla demonstrates the central place of religion in the intellectual life of post revolutionary France in Religion and the Post revolutionary Mind Certain questions What is the nature of religion Does society rest on religious foundations What ought to be the place of religion in society drew sustained attention from across the political spectrum Id ologues viewed religion as error and sought to eradicate it through the promotion of secular values Catholic Traditionalists understood religion as a body of revealed truths of supernatural origin that ought to be authoritative in all aspects of life Liberals sought to replace Christian orthodoxy with a new public faith consonant with liberal values But these blocs were not monolithic and McCalla reveals the complexities of each one as well as the dialogues and rivalries among them The categories established by the concepts of religion these thinkers constructed continue to shape debates over liberationist critiques liberal pluralism la cit and political theology The place of religion in civil society is again a matter of urgent debate Religion and the Post revolutionary Mind provides essential historical context for thinking about the status of religion in the contemporary world Benjamin Constant Méconnu Pierre Deguise, 1966

The Visible and the Invisible in the Interplay between Philosophy, Literature and Reality Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2012-12-06 Merleau Ponty s categories of the visible and the invisible are investigated afresh and with originality in this penetrating collection of literary and philosophical inquiries Going beyond the traditional and current references to the mental and the sensory mind and body perceptual content and the abstract ideas conveyed in language etc these studies range from the hidden spheres of reality to the play of the visible and the invisible left as traces in works of human genius the origins of intellect and language the real and the imaginary in literature and the hidden realities in the philosophy of the everyday world These literary and philosophical probings collectively reveal the role of this disjoined conjoined pairing in the onto-poietic establishment of reality that is in the manifestation of the logos of life In tandem they bring to light the hidden play of the visible and the invisible in the emergence of our vital societal intimate intellectual and creative involvements
