Networked Neighbourhoods Patrick Purcell,2007-11-08 The setting for this book is the networked community The treatment of the subject matter is broad and interdisciplinary with contributions from computer science sociology design human factors and communication technology The chapter contributors drawn from across Europe and North America offer a varied

The Berlin-Baghdad Express Sean McMeekin,2010-09-15 The modern Middle East was forged in the crucible of the First World War and McMeekin reveals in this startling reinterpretation it was neither the British nor the French but rather a small clique of Germans and Turks who thrust the Islamic world into the conflict for their own political economic and military ends

Mobilities, Networks, Geographies Jonas Larsen,John Urry,2016-05-06 There have been striking increases in both long distance travel and in communications through mobile phones text messaging emailing and videoconferencing Such developments in communication along with a similar increase in physical travel and movement of goods around the globe reconfigure social networks by disconnecting and reconnecting people in new ways This original book puts forward one of the first social science studies of the geographies of social networks and related mobilities of travel communications and face to face meetings The book examines five interdependent mobilities that form and reform these geographies of networks and travel in the contemporary world These are physical travel of people for work leisure pleasure migration and escape physical movement of objects delivered to producers consumers and retailers imaginative travel elsewhere through images and memories seen on texts TV computer screens and film virtual travel on the internet and communicative travel through letters cards telegrams telephones faxes text messages and videoconferences In the book the authors examine the interconnections between these different mobilities They research how travel and social meetings require systems of coordination using virtual and communicative travel in between physical travel and meetings They argue that while it might be imagined that there would be less need of physical meetings with improved technology on the contrary scheduled visits and meetings have become highly significant The research shows that they are necessary to social life in the contemporary world both within business and especially within families and friendships which are increasingly conducted at a distance

The Politics of Labor in a Global Age Christopher Candland,Rudra Sil,2001 This volume features essays on labour relations at national local and workplace levels as economic and political actors cope with the similar challenges associated with economic adjustment measures and the impact of globalization
