Programming and Planning in Early Childhood Settings Leonie Arthur,1993 A comprehensive in depth exploration of the processes and issues involved in planning for children in Australian early childhood settings with emphasis on the importance of the individual child Contemporary Families and Alternative Lifestyles Eleanor D. Macklin, Roger Harvey Rubin, 1983-02 Single parent families reconstituted families and dual earner families this monumental effort synthesizes research and explores theories about such alternatives to traditional family life Leading scholars were asked to write chapters about the new family forms They review what is already known about their particular topic its historical context its impact on individuals and society and suggestions for future directions They also deal with such key issues as the reaction of religion to these changes Alzheimer's Disease Treatment and Family Stress Enid Light, Barry Lebowitz, 1989 Social Work Practice with Ethnically and Racially Diverse Nursing Home Residents and Their Families Patricia J. Kolb, 2007 The first of its kind this volume is a critical companion for service providers who work with African American American Indian Chinese Italian Japanese Korean Mexican American and Puerto Rican elders and their families in nursing homes and other care settings These groups are likely to use nursing homes in larger numbers as cultural shifts such as higher divorce rates and increased outside of home employment for females transform traditional family dynamics Contributors are experience social workers and most belong to the specific ethnic or racial group that is the focus of their chapter and have also provided nursing home services to this group They provide a wealth of demographic historical cultural and practice information crucial to understanding and providing services to older adults and their families Many nursing home residents experience physical and or cognitive debilitation and increased dependence as older adults and cultural and situational differences create variations in how these changes are experienced and addressed In this volume contributors touch upon all of these areas as well as ways in which prejudice and discrimination have shaped intergenerational and other relationships for members of specific ethnic and racial groups Little has been written about the characteristics needs and experiences of racially and ethnically diverse nursing home residents and their families and requirements for culturally competent social work practice Written by social workers for social workers and other service providers this book fills a gap in a rapidly growing area of gerontological service and provides a truly comprehensive examination of cultural and practice phenomena
