Divided City, The: Ideological And Policy Contestations In Contemporary Urban India Binti Singh, Mahendra Sethi, 2018-07-03 The Divided City contributes to the growing body of scholarly work on cities of the global South. Cities in developing countries, particularly emerging economies, are undergoing rapid urbanization and social transition. Empirically grounded to the contemporary urban situation in India, The Divided City is set in an opportune moment to assess how cities fare up to the challenge of inclusive urbanization. It highlights how the urban pathway of contemporary India departs from the goal of inclusion in multiple ways: access to energy, public services, architecture, land, infrastructure, commons, and cultural and civic spaces. It simultaneously interrogates both policy and theory with intermingling issues like informality, privatization, political economy, and gender divide in the contemporary Indian city. The book argues for greater urban inclusion, social, economic, and environmental, acknowledged in principle in national and international urban policy frameworks. Uniting a Divided City Jo Beall, Owen Crankshaw, Susan Parnell, 2014-10-14 For many Johannesburg resembles the imagined spectre of the urban future. Global anxieties about catastrophic urban explosion, social fracture, environmental degradation, escalating crime and violence, and rampant consumerism alongside grinding poverty are projected onto this city as a microcosm of things to come. Decision makers in cities worldwide have attempted to balance harsh fiscal and administrative realities with growing demands for political, economic, and social justice. This book investigates pragmatic approaches to urban economic development, service delivery, spatial restructuring, environmental sustainability, and institutional reform in Johannesburg. It explores the conditions and processes that are determining the city's transformation into a cosmopolitan metropole and magnet for the continent. Divided City Theresa Breslin, Martin Travers, 2013-03-14 Nominated for ten UK book awards. Theresa Breslin's hit novel tells of how two young boys, one a Rangers fan, one a Celtic fan, are drawn into a secret pact to help a young asylum seeker in a city divided by prejudice. Now adapted for the stage by Martin Travers, the play has already been produced to great acclaim at Glasgow's Citizens Theatre. Graham and Joe just want to play football and be selected for the new city team, but a violent attack on Kyoul, an asylum seeker, changes everything when they find themselves drawn into a secret pact to help the victim and his girlfriend Leanne. Set in Glasgow at the time of the Orange Order marches, Divided City is a gripping tale about two boys and how they must find their own way forward in a world divided by difference. This educational edition has been prepared by national Drama in Secondary English experts Ruth Moore and Paul Bunyan. Published in Methuen Drama's Critical Scripts series, the book meets the curriculum requirements for English at KS3, GCSE, and Scottish CfE. It features detailed structured schemes of work utilising drama approaches to improve literary and language analysis, places pupils' understanding of the learning process at the heart of the activities, will help pupils to boost English GCSE success, and develop high-level skills. At KS3, it will save teachers considerable time devising their own resources. The Divided City Alan Mallach, 2018-06-12 In The Divided City, urban practitioner and scholar Alan Mallach presents a detailed picture of what has happened over the past 15 to 20 years in industrial cities like Pittsburgh and Baltimore as they have undergone unprecedented unexpected revival He spotlights these changes while placing them in their larger economic social and political context Most importantly he explores the pervasive significance of race in American cities and looks closely at the successes and failures of city governments nonprofit entities and citizens as they have tried to address the challenges of change The Divided City concludes with strategies to foster greater equality and opportunity firmly grounding them in the cities economic and political realities

Theorizing the City Setha M. Low,1999 Anthropological perspective are not often represented in urban studies even though many anthropologist have been contributing actively to theory and research on urban poverty racism globalization and architecture Theorizing the City corrects this omission Following a brief history of urban anthropology emphasizing developments in the field during the 1990s this volume presents twelve ethnographies of major cities in the Americas Africa Asia and Europe Five images of the city the divided city the contested city the global city the modernist city and the postmodern city serve as frameworks for the essays Each section highlights current research trends such as poststructural studies of race class and gender in the urban context political economic studies of transnational culture and studies of the symbolic meanings and social production of urban spaces
