The Divided Self R. D. Laing, 2010-01-28 The Divided Self R D Laing s groundbreaking exploration of the nature of madness illuminated the nature of mental illness and made the mysteries of the mind comprehensible to a wide audience First published in 1960 this watershed work aimed to make madness comprehensible and in doing so revolutionized the way we perceive mental illness Using case studies of patients he had worked with psychiatrist R D Laing argued that psychosis is not a medical condition but an outcome of the divided self or the tension between the two personas within us one our authentic private identity and the other the false sane self that we present to the world Laing s radical approach to insanity offered a rich existential analysis of personal alienation and made him a cult figure in the 1960s yet his work was most significant for its humane attitude which put the patient back at the centre of treatment Includes an introduction by Professor Anthony S David One of the twentieth century s most influential psychotherapists Guardian Laing challenged the psychiatric orthodoxy of his time an icon of the 1960s counter culture The Times

Youth and Internet Addiction in China Trent Bax, 2013-08-15 A form of electronic opium is how some people have characterised young people s internet use in China The problem of internet addiction wangyin is seen by some parents as so severe that they have sought psychiatric help for their children This book which is based on extensive original research including discussions with psychiatrists parents and internet addicted young people explores the conflicting attitudes which this issue reveals It contrasts the views of young people who see internet use especially gaming as a welcome escape from the dehumanising pressures of contemporary Chinese life with the approach of those such as their parents who medicalise internet overuse and insist that working hard for good school grades is the correct way to progress The author shows that these contrasting attitudes lead to battles which are often fierce and violent and argues that the greater problem may in fact lie with parents and other authority figures who misguidedly apply high pressure to enforce young people to conform to the empty values of a modern dehumanised consumer oriented society

All the Madmen Clinton Heylin,2012-02-16 By the end of 1968 The Beatles were far too busy squabbling with each other while The Stones had simply stopped making music English Rock was coming to an end All the Mad Men tells the story of six stars that travelled to edge of sanity in the years following the summer of love Pete Townshend Ray Davies Peter Green Syd Barrett Nick Drake and David Bowie The book charts how they made some of the most seminal rock music ever recorded Pink Moon Ziggy Stardust Quadrophenia Dark Side of the Moon Muswell Hillbillies and how some of them could not make it back from the brink The extraordinary story of how English Rock went mad and found itself Family Secrets Deborah Cohen,2013 What did families hide in the past and why By delving into the familial dynamics of shame and guilt Family Secrets investigates the part that families so often regarded as the agents of repression have played in the transformation of social mores from the Victorian era to the present day Mental Health Book Review Index ,1970 Developments in Psychotherapy Windy Dryden,1996-08-28 This comprehensive and accessible book charts the origins and development of the major non psychoanalytic fields in counselling and psychotherapy Leading British and North American psychotherapists examine a range of approaches including person centred transactional analysis Gestalt cognitive and behavioural therapy They discuss how why and where each approach came about and the context and influences under which it was formulated They go on to survey the further development of theory and practice in each case taking in the most significant trends and highlighting advances which are often not recognized or fully understood Each approach is then brought firmly up to date with an overview of its current ideology and Schizophrenia Glenn Shean,1978 Patience and Power Jean-Marc Laporte,1988 Heredity and Environment in the Functional Psychoses Einar Kringlen,1968 The Politics and Aesthetics of Refusal Caroline Hamilton,2007 The Politics and Aesthetics of Refusal is an eclectic collection of essays from emerging academics who engage with the notion of oerefusal both as the embodiment of a resistance to conventional boundaries between academic disciplines and as a concept with an underlying negative or reactive force that can be widely interpreted and applied The applications of oerefusal outlined in this volume ranging from activism and the politics of cultural production through to problems of identity and knowledge classification raise questions about often elided relationships of agency and complicity in routine experience The sense of oerefusal that emerges from this book is perhaps most easily classified by what it is not namely a prescriptive conclusive or unified account of what it is to reject react or work against any particular instance of theory or practice in any given domain The value of a thematically oriented collection like this is its ability to work across disciplines media and philosophical frameworks rather than limiting its focus to a narrow territory According to

Herbert Marcuse refusal must not only be the guiding principle for all artistic creation it must also be a manifestation of artistic creation itself With this volume we have attempted to compose a collection which is not only theoretically guided by refusal but practically informed by it as well The collection in itself constitutes we hope a constructive rejection of the usual constrictions of discipline and approach placed upon new scholars This rich collection of essays on the political aesthetic and ethical dimensions of that form of social action called refusal is an important contribution to our understanding of the tensions and contradictions of contemporary culture John Frow Professor of English Literary Studies at the University of Melbourne
