Rafinesque Anthology C.S. Rafinesque,2005-06-29 Among American naturalists C S Rafinesque 1783 1840 is second only to Audubon in the popular interest he sustains This interest is due in part to his colorful life and provocative personality but he is also remembered for devising Latin scientific names for more plants than any other naturalist who ever lived and a great number in the animal kingdom as well This passion for nomenclature has kept his name memorable some would say notorious among naturalists Yet his taxonomic writings made up only a part of his extensive oeuvre Rafinesque s restless mind ranged over areas of inquiry from archaeology to zoology His published writings in these fields have been difficult to lay hands on and have never been collected Among such essays now gathered into this volume two were unavailable until 1949 six were listed only in 1982 and four remained unknown until 2001 The recovery and reprinting of these 12 contributions help to broaden the understanding of his achievements over a lifetime Arranged in nine sections 25 topics are offered here several of which are explored in more than one essay including the Origin of Native Americans Hebrew Studies Utopian Society Lightning The Milky Way Sea Serpents and Evolution Editorial introductions are provided for each topic and period illustrations some included in the original Rafinesque publications enhance the text     Systematic Theology Augustus Hopkins Strong,1907 I The doctrine of God II The doctrine of man III The doctrine of salvation     Leon Forrest John G. Williams, 2005 In the Light of Likeness transformed by Dana A Williams looks critically at the work of contemporary African American author Leon Forrest Not only does she bring to the critical table a well known but as yet understudied modernist author an important endeavor in and of itself but she also explores Forrest's novels cultural dialogue with black ethnic culture and other African American authors as well as provides in depth readings of his prose and interpretations of his narrative style Forrest's highly experimental narrative style his reinterpretation of modernism and his transformations of black cultural traditions into literary aesthetics often pose challenges of interpretation for the reader and the scholar alike As the first single authored book length study of Forrest's novel this book offers readers pathways into his fiction What this culturalist approach to the novels reveals is that Forrest's fiction was foremost concerned with investigating ways for the African American to survive in the contemporary moment Through a variety of characters the novels reveal the African American's art of transformation the ability to find ways to make the wretchedness of the past work in positive ways BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved When Time Began Zecharia Sitchin, 2007-03-27 They came to Earth thousands of years ago to usher in mankind's first New Age of scientific growth and spiritual enlightenment Under the guidance of these ancient visitors from the heavens human civilization flourished as revolutionary advances in art science and thought swept through the inhabited world And they left behind magnificent monuments baffling monoliths and awesome towering structures that stand to this day as testaments to their greatness In this extraordinarily documented meticulously researched work Zecharia Sitchin draws remarkable correlations between the events that shape our civilization in millennia past pinpointing with astonishing accuracy the tumultuous beginning of time as we know it and revealing to us the indisputable signature of extraterrestrial god indelibly written in stone The Works of Henry Van Dyke: Days off and other digressions Henry Van Dyke, 1920 The Lutheran Witness, 1882 The Columbia Guide to Contemporary African American Fiction Darryl Dickson-Carr, 2005-10-14 From Ishmael Reed and Toni Morrison to Colson Whitehead and Terry McMillan Darryl Dickson Carr offers a definitive guide to contemporary African American literature This volume the only reference work devoted exclusively to African American fiction of the last thirty five years presents a wealth of factual and interpretive information about the major authors texts movements and ideas that have shaped contemporary African American fiction In more than 160 concise entries arranged alphabetically Dickson Carr discusses the careers works and critical receptions of Alice Walker Gloria Naylor Jamaica Kincaid Charles Johnson John Edgar Wideman Leon Forrest as well as other prominent and lesser known authors Each entry presents ways of reading the author's works identifies key themes and influences assesses the writer's overarching significance and includes sources for further research Dickson Carr addresses the influence of a variety of literary movements critical theories and publishers of
