Djenne Il Y A Cent Ans:

Djenné, il y a cent ans Bernhard Gardi, Pierre Maas, Geert Mommersteeg, 1995 The Peoples of the Middle Niger Roderick James McIntosh, 1998-10-15 The Peoples of the Middle Niger This book provides the first comprehensive history of the peoples of the Middle Niger written by an English speaking scholar The Island of Gold was the medieval Muslim and later European name for a fabled source of gold and other tropical riches Although the floodplain of the Niger river lies far from the goldfields the mosaic of peoples along the Middle Niger created a wealth of grain fish and livestock that supported some of Africa s oldest cities including Timbuktu These ancient cities of the region that came to be known as Western Sudan were founded without outside stimulation and their inhabitants long resisted the coercive centralized state that characterized the origins of earliest towns elsewhere In this book Roderick James McIntosh uses the latest archaeological and anthropological research to provide a bold overview of the distant origins of life for the inhabitants of the Middle Niger and an explanation for their social evolution He shows for instance the difficulties the peoples faced in adapting to an unpredictable climate and how their particular social organization determined the unusual nature of their responses to that change Throughout the book oral traditions are integrated into the story providing vivid insights into the inhabitants complex culture and belief systems The Politics of Heritage Management in Mali Charlotte L Joy, 2016-06-16 This critical investigation highlights the politics of cultural heritage management including authenticity and conservation and its effects on the everyday lives of the peoples it claim to be representing through the example of Djenn in Mali Vernacular Architecture in the 21st Century Lindsay Asquith, Marcel Vellinga, 2006-03-10 The issues surrounding the function and meaning of vernacular architecture in the twenty first century are complex and extensive Taking a distinctively rigorous theoretical approach this book considers these issues from a number of perspectives broadening current debate to a wider multidisciplinary audience These collected essays from the leading experts in the field focus on theory education and practice in this essential sector of architecture and help to formulate solutions to the environmental disaster management and housing challenges facing the global community today In the City of the Marabouts Geert Mommersteeg, 2011-09-11 From the opening pages amidst the throes of Ramadan during the hottest and driest season in Mali Dutch ethnographer Geert Mommersteeg welcomes readers into the religious culture of a historic city uniquely filled with Islamic scholars known as marabouts This finely crafted English language translation provides a remarkable contribution to the study of Islamic practices and beliefs observed in local contexts in sub Saharan Africa with a focus on the interrelationship between public and secret knowledge of maraboutage in everyday reality This inviting personal narrative of an anthropologist s long term fieldwork in Djennfor centuries a center of West African culture scholarship and architecture is full of valuable methodological insights Mommersteeg with unassuming honesty becomes absorbed in the knowledge of the Holy Word and slowly enters the closed world of religious practice in which marabouts serve as intermediaries between God and their clients While marabouts do not claim to be all knowing they do know how God can be addressed most effectively which amulets are the most powerful and which alms are best for nudging the future in the right direction Mali Ross Velton,2009 The third edition of Bradt's Mali has been thoroughly updated and includes new sections on Mali's festivals music and musicians Religious Architecture Oskar Verkaaik,2025-10-01 Borrowing from a range of theories on spacemaking and material religion and with contributions from anthropologists working in the United Kingdom Mali Brazil Spain and Italy this fascinating and comprehensive study develops an anthropological perspective on modern religious architecture including mosques churches and synagogues Religious Architecture examines how religious buildings take their place in opposition to their secular surroundings and in so doing function not only as community centers in urban daily life but also as evocations of the sublime that help believers to move beyond the boundaries of modern subjectivity Le Maroc il y a cent ans William Lemprière,1911 African Arts ,1997 Traditional Dwellings and Settlements Review ,2001 Ethno-archaeology in Jenné, Mali Adria Jean LaViolette,2000 An ethnoarchaeological study of the social and economic lives of three socialised producers based in Jenne Mali blacksmiths potters and masons Index Islamicus ,2002 The History of African Cities South of the Sahara Catherine Coquery-Vidrovitch,2005 Cities have existed in sub Saharan Africa since antiquity But only now are historians and archaeologists rediscovering their rich heritage the ancient ruins of Great Zimbabwe and Congo the harbor cities at the Indian Ocean the capitals of the Bantu Kingdoms the Atlantic cities from the 16th to the 18th centuries and the urban revolutions in the 19th century Mercantile cities opened Africa to the world Islamic cities became centers of scholarship and the trans Saharan trade Creole cities appeared after the first contact with Europeans and Bantu cities of the hinterland reacted against them The author has gone through vast numbers of archival records and conducted independent field research to analyze and describe the rich history of African cities even long before imperial colonization began and she continues her story until the time of urban reorganization during industrialization The result is a colorful panorama of urban lifestyles including unique examples of architecture and lasting traditions of ethnic cultural religious and commercial forms of co existence Historical Dictionary of Mali Pascal James Imperato,Gavin H.
