complexity and stylistic innovation of Irish fiction Derek Hand provides a remarkably detailed picture of the Irish novel's emergence in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries He shows the story of the genre is the story of Ireland's troubled relationship to modernisation The first critical synthesis of the Irish novel from the seventeenth century to the present day this is a major book for the field and the first to thematically theoretically and contextually chart its development It is an essential entertaining and highly original guide to the history of the Irish novel BENEDICT KIELY READER BENEDICT. KIELY,2024 Modern Irish Writers Alexander G. Gonzalez,1997-08-26 While the Irish Literary Revival began around 1885 and ended somewhere between 1925 and 1940 the Irish Renaissance has continued to the present day and shows no sign of abating The period has produced some of the most important and influential figures in Irish literature some of whom are counted among the world's greatest authors The Revival saw a reestablishment of Ireland's literary connections with its Celtic heritage and writers such as William Butler Yeats and Lady Gregory drew heavily on the myths and legends of the past James Joyce boldly reshaped the novel and wrote short fiction of enduring value Contemporary Irish writers continue to be leading figures and include such authors as Brian Friel Seamus Heaney and Eavan Boland Included in this reference book are alphabetically arranged entries for more than 70 modern Irish writers including Samuel Beckett William Trevor Patrick Kavanagh Medbh McGuckian Sean O'Casey J M Synge and Nuala Ni Dhomhnaill Entries are written by expert contributors and reflect a broad range of perspectives Each entry contains a brief biography that summarizes the author's career a discussion of major works and themes an overview of the author's critical reception and a bibliography of primary and secondary works An introductory essay reviews the large and growing body of scholarship on modern Irish literature while an extensive bibliography concludes the volume Irish Literature in Transition, 1940-1980: Volume 5 Eve Patten,2020-03-12 This volume explores the history of Irish writing between the Second World War or the Emergency in 1939 and the re-emergence of violence in Northern Ireland in the 1970s It situates modern Irish writing within the contexts of cultural transition and transnational connection often challenging pre-existing perceptions of Irish literature in this period as stagnant and mundane While taking into account the grip of Irish censorship and cultural nationalism during the mid-twentieth century these essays identify an Irish literary culture stimulated by international political horizons and fully responsive to changes in publishing readership and education The book combines valuable cultural surveys with focussed discussions of key literary moments and of individual authors such as Seán Ó Faoláin Samuel Beckett Edna O'Brien and John McGahern
