Distorted Past A Re Interpretation Of Europe:

The Distorted Past Josep Fontana,1995-06-08 This book turns the received wisdom of European history inside out From discussions of the Gothic Hun and Vandal invasions and the fall of the Roman Empire through other great events and issues of European history Josep Fontana re examines the traditional acceptance of such ideas as classical heritage medieval Christendom reformation and counter reformation absolutism and the idea of progress At the same time he draws attention to the existence and validity of dissidence rebellion and variety which are for him identifying marks of Europe Europe's Crises Manuel Castells,Olivier Bouin,Joao Caraça,Gustavo Cardoso,John Thompson,Michel Wieviorka,2018-03-16 Today the European Union is facing a crisis as serious as anything it has experienced since its origins more than half a century ago What makes this so serious is that it is not a single crisis but rather multiple crises the euro crisis the migration refugee crisis Brexit etc that overlap and reinforce one another creating a cumulative array of challenges that threatens the very survival of the EU For the first time in its history there is a real risk that the EU could break up This volume brings together sociologists economists and political scientists from around Europe to shed light on how the EU got into this predicament It argues that the multiple crises that have plagued the European Union in the last decade stem to a large extent from flaws in its construction and that these flaws are consequences of the political processes that led to the formation of the EU in other words the decisions that made possible the development of the EU created the conditions for the multiple crises it experiences today This timely and wide ranging book on one of the most important issues of our time will be of great interest to students and scholars in the social sciences to politicians and policy makers and to anyone concerned with Europe and its future Engaging Europe Evlyn Gould,George J. Sheridan,2007-05-10 The idea of Europe a collaborative pedagogical project Evlyn Gould and George J Sheridan Jr A story of Europe George J Sheridan Jr The idea of Europe Levinas and Shakespeare s The merchant of Venice Steven Shankman Relocating Europe Alexander B Murphy Idea of Rome idea of Europe John Nicols Provincia Gallia Narbonensis Steven Shankman Listening and the art of survival Robert Kyr Primo Levi s Testimony or philosophy between poetry and science Massimo Lollini Europe in the wake of the Shoah Evlyn Gould Autonomy and the mistress discipline in European thought Malcolm Wilson Does Baudelaire read Adam Smith Evlyn Gould and George J Sheridan Jr On charting Europeanness Joseph Krause Democracy in Europe Luciano Canfora,2008-04-15 This history traces the development of democracy in Europe from its origins in ancient Greece up to the present day Considers all the major watersheds in the development of democracy in modern Europe Describes the rediscovery of Ancient Greek political ideals by intellectuals at the end of the eighteenth century Examines the twenty year crisis from 1789 to 1815 when the repercussions of revolution in France were felt across the European continent Explains how events in France led to the explosion of democratic movements between 1830 and 1848 Compares the different manifestations of democracy within Eastern and Western Europe during the latter half of the nineteenth century Considers fascism and its consequences for democracy in Europe during the twentieth century Demonstrates how in the recent past democracy itself has become the object of ideological battles

Europe as an Idea and an Identity H. Mikkeli, 1998-01-28 Heikki Mikkeli charts the history of the idea of Europe and European identity The first part introduces the various attempts to unify Europe from antiquity to the European Union In the second part the relationship of Europe with America and Russia is considered as well as the ambivalent role of Central Europe

Zoom In, Zoom Out Sandra Barriales-Bouche, Marjorie Attignol Salvodon, 2009-03-26 In the context of the transformations that Europe is undergoing Zoom in Zoom out Crossing Borders in Contemporary European Cinema attempts to serve as a testimony to the multiple ways in which European filmmakers are questioning the many borders of the continent European films have become a vital cultural space where the relationship between borders and identity is being renegotiated The films discussed here self consciously address the question of European identity while overtly crossing geographic cultural linguistic and aesthetic borders While all the articles explore the crossing of borders in Contemporary European films the volume maintains diverse themes and perspectives as subtopics It includes articles not only about films that deal thematically with border crossings but also articles that examine movies that cross borders in genres and techniques The articles have different theoretical approaches Film theory Cultural Studies History Sociology Philosophy and Psychoanalysis and cover films from well known cinematic traditions French Spanish German and Italian as well as lesser known cinematic traditions Yugoslavian Greek and Irish As a whole the essays frame the self conscious gesture by European filmmakers to define European cinema as a work in progress or at the very least as a project that like Europe itself raises as many questions as it answers This volume is a welcome addition to the growing critical literature on the evolution of the conception and practice of national cinema in Europe over the last two decades Sandra Barriales Bouche and Marjorie Attignol Salvodon have chosen a solid selection of representative case studies that reflects different critical approaches to the problem of maintaining local or national cinema production in Europe during a period of intense globalization Their insightful introduction formulates the theme of unsettled borders and renegotiated identities that will resonate in the nine essays that follow With a focus on the critical concept of these unsettled borders the various authors explore the ways that the traditional mark of national space has been transformed through political and economic realignments as well as new technologies and the emergence of a new generation of filmmakers for whom national cinema no longer means what it did even twenty years ago The volume provides a good balance of critical approaches that includes auteur studies descriptions of state policies and the particular practices of filmmakers and producers in different parts of the continent Spain Germany Ireland the Balkans and finally useful appendices that provide a close up view of the complex nature of international co productions Marvin D Lugo Professor of Spanish Clark University This is an interesting collection of essays that has been well conceived and organised The standard of writing is high and I recommend publication I particularly commend the conceptual framework underpinning the volume This marries a cultural studies approach which still dominates the study of film in Area Studies and language departments across Europe and the US where filmic texts are increasingly used as teaching tools with the more industry based focus one tends to find adopted by Media and Screen Studies departments Thus this collection will appeal to a wide range of students and academics The introduction sets out the volume s overarching framework cogently and clearly giving a nuanced exploration of the way that the notion of the border can be used as a dynamic prism to help define and explore the limits of our understanding of Europe European identity and European culture within which cinema has long played a key role The editors give a good account for example of the way film has been employed as a space to explore the possibilities of European integration by EU politicians as well as highlighting the flaws inherent within this project They do however perhaps suggest a certain Western European North American centric view in their suggestion that the cinema of Yugoslavia Greece or Ireland is somehow less well known than other national and transnational cinemas explored here Less well known to whom However from the broad range of cinemas explored in the rest of the volume clearly this is not the case Particular high points for me are the chapters on the work of Fatih Akin by Janis Little Solomon and John Davidson s discussion of Schulze gets the Blues as well as Olivier Asselin s fascinating account of Database Cinema This will be a good addition to scholarship on European film and I look forward to receiving my copy

Professor Paul Cooke University of Leeds The SAGE Handbook of European Studies Chris Rumford, 2009-07-01 This volume brings together some of the biggest names in European Studies to analyse the most important trajectories of Europe s development and the challenges faced by the continent today No one interested in Europe will be able to ignore this extraordinary collection of scholarship Professor Thomas Diez University of Birmingham In its range and comprehensiveness it will be hard to beat and it will certainly become an invaluable resource for sociologists political scientists historians and all others seeking the best information and most up to the date approaches to the study of Europe today Professor Krishan Kumar University of Virginia An impressive account of the state of the art of the study of contemporary Europe This is an outstanding work and a definite companion to all those interested in contemporary Europe Journal of Contemporary European Studies Europe is one of the world s oldest civilizations But what does it mean to be European today What place does Europe have in global affairs How should we analyze its key institutions system of governance and broader cultural social and political dynamics This exhaustive and timely handbook Explores the transformations that characterize contemporary Europe Investigates how we can best study Europe Consolidates European studies and provides a platform for future study Increases the profile of European studies The Handbook promotes the increasing diversity of perspectives employed in the study of contemporary Europe and EU integration and is situated within the context of Europe s transformations It offers balanced coverage of political social economic cultural and institutional dimensions of Europe and includes chapters by leading authorities including Ulrich Beck Craigh Calhoun Donatella della Porta Claus Offe Anssi Paasi Ben Rosamond Gurminder Bhambra and Charles Tilly Multidisciplinary in organization inclusive in coverage and cutting edge in scope The SAGE Handbook of European Studies is a landmark resource for anyone interested in Europe

Reflections on Europe Hans-Åke Persson,Bo Stråth,2007 When Dutch and subsequently French voters rejected the Draft Treaty for a Constitution for Europe in Spring 2005 many voices called for a pause for reflection This book is in part a result of that moment of reflection We wanted to contribute to the debate about Europe but crucially we sought to do so by taking a step back from the problem formation and agenda setting of Brussels For the authors of this volume one key to establishing critical distance has been the reappraisal of the historical perspective Another has been the problematisation of Europe as a space as opposed to looking for a definition of borders The authors also seek critical distance through a focus on the tension between Europe as a culture as a polity and as an economy These tensions have often been neglected or even ignored and the relationships have been seen as more or less synonymous and harmonious The aim of this volume then is two fold It wants developing a critical distance to the present Europe to contribute to the vivid academic research and debate on Europe which too often either develops distance without commenting on the present state of affairs or comments on the present without critical distance
