Divine Healing Under the Searchlight Samuel Fisk,1978 Christian Science Under the Search Light Nicias Ballard Cooksey,1915 Fundamentalism and Education in the Scopes Era A. Laats,2010-05-24 This book takes a new look at one of the most contentious periods in American history The battles over schools that surrounded the famous Scopes monkey trial in 1925 were about much more than evolution Fundamentalists fought to maintain cultural control of education As this book reveals for the first time the successes and the failures of these fundamentalist campaigns transformed both the fundamentalist movement and the nature of education in America In turn those transformations determined many of the positions of the culture wars that raged throughout the twentieth century Heathenism Under the Searchlight William Remfry Hunt,1908 The Lancet-clinic ,1908 Reformed Evangelicalism and the Search for a Usable Past Ian Hugh Clary,2020-09-07 The question of how theology shapes a Christian historian s reading of the past has been debated thoroughly in various academic periodicals Should historians recognise the role of providence in their accounts of past events Should they sympathise with their subject s theology Can objectivity be lost due to theological bias And last but not least is there a compromise of faith if one writes natural instead of supernatural history Such questions are important for understanding the historian s profession Arnold Dallimore who trained and specialised in pastoral ministry in Canada wrote an influential biography of the revivalist George Whitefield as well as others on Charles and Susanna Wesley Edward Irving and Charles Spurgeon How did his Reformed theological perspective impact his historiography How does his work fit into larger historiographical debates concerning the nature of Christian history While other books look at Christian historiography using abstract and methodological approaches this book examines the subject precisely by looking at the life and work of an individual historian It does so by placing Dallimore in the context of being a minister in twentieth century Canada as well as his role in the development of Reformed Theology in the Anglosphere It also examines the quality of his various biographies focusing on key issues such as the nature of religious revival the problem of Christianity and slavery and the question of charismatic religious experience His study concludes by examining the relationship between the discipline and profession of church history and asking what is required for one to be considered a church historian [Catalogue of Title-entries of Books and Other Articles Entered in the Office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington, Under the Copyright Law ... Jette,2019-05-10 God s soldiers are under attack by Satan through sickness and disease Many sit like Job with the mentality that God has forsaken them Due to a lack of knowledge of what is included in the Atonement some believe that their sickness and disease is the will of God Why is there so little difficulty believing that we have freedom from sin s power in the Atonement and so much controversy believing that it includes freedom from the power of sickness and disease God has impressed my heart that his soldiers are settling for less than what he has promised in his word Many are deficient in a knowledge of Scripture Others have been taught wrong doctrine and are ignorant of God s promises which belong to his children This book is meant to give the understanding that it is God s will for us to recognize what the devil is doing and overcome his lies by faith The Holy Spirit has been trying to set the captive free from sickness and disease but wrong doctrine misunderstanding of Scripture and medical science have God s soldiers tormented by Satan s lies This book addresses the devil s lies and is meant to once and for all set the captive free

The Failure of Evangelical Mental Health Care John Weaver,2014-11-17 In the evangelical community a variety of alternative mental health treatments deliverance exorcism biblical counseling reparative therapy and many others have been proposed for the treatment of mentally ill female and LGBT evangelicals This book traces the history of these methods focusing on the major proponents of each therapeutic system while also examining mainstream evangelical psychology The author concludes that in the majority of cases mental disorders are blamed on two main issues sin and demonic possession oppression and that as a result some communities have become a mental health underclass who are ill served or oppressed by both alternative and mainstream evangelical therapeutic systems He argues that the only recourse left for mentally ill female and LGBT evangelicals is to rally for reform and increased accountability for both professional and alternative evangelical practitioners

Making Good the Claim Rufus Burrow Jr.,2016-02-16 The Church of God Reformation Movement founded in 1881 has the distinction of having been founded on the two core principles of holiness and visible unity Standard histories of the group proudly argue that the founder and pioneers exhibited a zeal for interracial unity that began to wane only in the early years of the twentieth century This book rejects that claim and argues instead that little to no extant hard evidence supports that view Moreover Making Good the Claim argues that while blacks eagerly joined the group they did so not because whites expended much energy evangelizing among them but because they heard something deeper in the message of holiness and visible unity than God s expectation that members achieve spiritual and church unity Unlike most whites blacks interpreted the message to call for unity along racial lines as well This book challenges members of the Church of God to begin forthwith to make good their historic claim about holiness and visible unity particularly as it applies to interracial unity
