The Image of the Black in Western Art David Bindman, Henry Louis Gates (Jr.), Karen C. C. Dalton, 2010 A pioneering work in the field of art history The Image of the Black in Western Art is a comprehensive series of ten books which offers a lavishly illustrated history of the representations of people of African descent from antiquity to the present Each book includes a series of essays by some of the most distinguished names in art history Ranging from images of Pharaohs created by unknown hands almost 3 500 years ago to the works of the great masters of European and American art such as Bosch D rer Mantegna Rembrandt Rubens Watteau Hogarth Copley and Goya to stunning new media creations by contemporary black artists these books are generously illustrated with beautiful moving and often little known images of black people Black figures queens and slaves saints and soldiers priests and prisoners dancers and athletes children and gods are central to the visual imagination of Western civilization Written in accessible language the extensive and insightful commentaries on the illustrations by distinguished art historians make this series invaluable for the general reader and the specialist alike R sum de l diteur

The Image of the Black in Western Art David Bindman, Henry Louis Gates (Jr.), Karen C. C. Dalton, 2010 It surveys as never before the presence of black people mainly mythical in art from the early Christian era to the fourteenth century The extraordinary transformation of Saint Maurice into a black African saint the subject of many noble and deeply touching images is a highlight of this volume The new introduction by Paul Kaplan provides a fresh perspective on the image of the black in medieval European art and contextualizes the classic essays on the subject Book Jacket

Images of Blacks in American Culture Jessie Smith, 1988-06-28 The 10 essays here explore the images of blacks in historical contemporary American culture Negative and stereotypical images of blacks have been deeply embedded in our art music literature film theater and other forms of expression On the other hand as the preface states black artists and others have also celebrated images of strength beauty and achievement Reflecting the complexity of the relationship between the races these two elements are often intertwined This reference work explores these images both positive and negative and their historical development and impact on both black and American culture Its unique qualities are the discussions and sources for studying and understanding those artifacts as well as the provision of a historical perspective on the images Reference Books Bulletin This comprehensive work enriches and extends the subject matter and the scope of the leading books on the topic and provides a ready reference for information published in scattered sources It interprets the use of black images in a variety of media such as works of art popular titles and other sources and identifies the artifacts books films and other materials that have been collected privately or in libraries The ten chapters also discuss pertinent literature on the wide range of themes that they cover and include a selective list of additional references for further study and research Also included are numerous illustrations that provide an interesting pictorial perspective on this controversial topic

White Screens, Black Images James A. Snead, 1994 Explores modes of racial coding in Hollywood cinema from 1915 to 1985 This study presents three major methods through which racist ideology functions in film mythification marking and omission It analyzes film texts drawn from both classical Hollywood and Black independent film culture White on Black Jan Nederveen Pieterse,1992-01-01 White on Black is a compelling visual history of the development of European and American stereotypes of black people over the last two hundred years Its purpose is to show the pervasiveness of prejudice against blacks throughout the western world as expressed in stock in trade racist imagery and caricature Reproducing a wide range of illustrations from engravings and lithographs to advertisements candy wrappings biscuit tins dolls posters and comic strips the book challenges the hidden assumptions of even those who view themselves as unprejudiced Jan Nederveen Pieterse sets Western images of Africa and blacks in a chronological framework including representations from medieval times from the colonial period with its explorers settlers and missionaries from the era of slavery and abolition and from the multicultural societies of the present day Pieterse shows that blacks have been routinely depicted throughout the West as servants entertainers and athletes and that particular countries have developed their own comforting black stereotypes about blacks Sambo and Uncle Tom in the United States Golliwog in Britain Bamboula in France and Black Peter in the Netherlands Looking at conventional portrayals of blacks in the nursery in sexual arenas and in commerce and advertising Pieterse analyzes the conceptual roots of the stereotypes about them The images that he presents have a direct and dramatic impact and they raise questions about the expression of power within popular culture and the force of caricature humor and parody as instruments of oppression Ethnic Images in Toys & Games Pamela B.
