The Blue Angel (Der Blaue Engel) S.S. Prawer, 2019-07-25 This comprehensive study reconstructs the production history of The Blue Angel 1930 showing how director Josef von Sternberg's virtuoso visual style was amply supported by an immensely talented team of actors and technicians It also analyzes the film's aesthetics and shows how the grave political situation in Germany reverberated in its seemingly airtight world One of the most famous images in cinema is to be found in the film The Blue Angel 1930 Lola Lola Marlene Dietrich in revealing black suspenders sits on a beer barrel clasping an upraised knee with both hands while she leans slightly back Though not Germany's first sound film it was at the time the most prestigious and expensive by far Sternberg had been lured back from Hollywood and together with acting star Emil Jannings and producer Erich Pommer he set about making an adaptation of Heinrich Mann's novel Professor Unrat The result is a subtly claustrophobic study of a man's downfall which is a milestone in European cinema

Willing Seduction Barbara Kosta, 2009 This fascinating cultural history of The Blue Angel provides a new interpretive framework with which to approach this classic Weimar film and suggests that discourses on mass and high culture are integral to the film's thematic and narrative structure These discourses surface in the relationship between the two main characters the cabaret entertainer Lola Lola Marlene Dietrich and the high school teacher Immanuel Rath one time Oscar winner Emil Jannings In addition to offering insight into some of the major debates that informed the Weimar Republic this book also demonstrates how similar issues continue to shape the contemporary cultural landscape of Germany where Dietrich serves as a cultural icon whose symbolic value has contributed significantly to nation building since German unification rear cover
