Gonzalez growing up in El Paso during the 1960s was a time of loneliness and vulnerability He encountered discrimination in high school not only for being Latino but also for being a non athlete in a school where sports were important Like many young people he found diversion in music unlike most he found solace in the desert In these vignettes Gonzalez shares memories of boyhood that tell how he discovered the natural world and his creative spirit Through 29 storylike essays he takes readers into the heart of the desert and the soul of a developing poet Gonzalez introduces us to the people who shaped his life We learn of his father s difficulties with running a pool hall and of his grandmother s steadfast religious faith We meet sinister Texas Rangers hallucinatory poets illegal aliens and racist high school jocks His vivid recollections embrace lizard hunts and rattlesnake dreams rock music and menudo making all in stories that convey the pains and joys of growing up on the border As Gonzalez leads us through his desert of hope and vision we come to recognize the humor and sadness that permeate this special place
