The third edition, improved and enlarged Richard GADESBY,1787 Energy in Orthodox Theology and Physics Stoyan Tanev,2017-08-29 It is well known that energy is a fundamental concept in physics Much less well known is that it is also a key concept in Eastern Christian or Orthodox theology This book from Dr Stoyan Tanev a physicist innovation management scholar and theologian provides a comparative analysis of the conceptualizations of energy in Orthodox theology and in physics and demonstrates the potential of such comparison for a better understanding of these two quite different domains of human enquiry The book explores the rediscovery of the Byzantine Church s teaching on the Divine energies in twentieth century Orthodox theology and offers new insights about the key contributions of key theologians such as Sergius Bulgakov George Florovsky John Meyendorff Christos Yannaras and Thomas Torrance Where do the understandings of energy in theology and physics meet The author argues that the encounter between theology and physics happens at the level of quantum physics where the subtle use of words and language acquires a distinctive apophatic dimension His comparative approach focuses on the epistemological struggles of theologians and physicists According to Tanev this focus on the struggles of knowing offers a new way to look at the dialogue between science and theology Calabria with Love Gianni Callari,2012-06-13 In 1927 in a town deep within the Calabrian mountains an oppressed and isolated family lives under the tyranny of a violent baron who wants to subdue and recruit the brothers Pietro and Ferruccio by any means possible When the brothers reject his offer the enraged baron exacts his revenge on the family in a brutal attack on their children He attempts to kill Ferruccio's toddler son Nicola and forcefully adopts Pietro's now orphaned four year old niece Carmen As astute as he is dangerous Pietro now calling himself Zione insinuates himself into the baron's inner circle waiting for the perfect moment to exact his own revenge Years pass and the world is at war Ferruccio returns from the horrors of the Russian Front with a frostbitten foot only to find there are battles to be won at home as well Nicola now a man is engaged to Carmen who carries his child But the baron forbids his adopted daughter to marry Under threat of death Nicola flees to Miami There he seeks protection and help from a local boss Back in Italy Carmen gives birth to their child before joining Nicola in Florida in the hopes of starting a new life in the New World Together they open an Italian restaurant and try to find happiness so far from home They will never forget the Great Sila the viddanedda the beech forest the fountains and the procession of Santa Caterina They will always remember their lost Calabria with love Essays on the History and Culture of the Unknown Calabria Caterina Pangallo,2023-09-01 Calabria is one of the oldest civilised regions of Europe In antiquity the philosophy science literature and poetry of the Greek Pythagoreans
