Candles Sara Slavin, Deborah Jones, 1996 Candles Sara Slavin, 1996-10-17 Sometimes the simplest of ideas create the most memorable moments All it takes is a little inspiration Everything and everyone looks better by candlelight and no artificial light can match the enveloping warmth of candles The simple act of sharing a meal while watching candlelight flicker in the eyes of those we care about is one of life s purest pleasures while the almost magical power of fire is evidenced in the way we call sweethearts flames and ritually light candles to welcome the sacred at Hanukkah and Advent Whether you choose dozens of stubby votives two shapely hurricanes or a landscape of hand rolled beeswax cylinders candle soothe our eyes and minds welcome guests and strike the mood Filled with innovative ideas and inspiring full color photos Candles offers a wealth of ways to use candles in settings both simple and grand classical and contemporary It reveals the infinite variety of candle sizes colors scents and shapes available today and provides dozens of creative suggestions for personalizing and enhancing this integral element of a captivating table When the candles have dimmed the guests satisfied and the napkins tossed back on the table some settings demand to be lingered at Everyone who entertains knows that setting a lovely table sets the stage for memorable dining and is every bit as important as what is served That s why the Elements of the Table series explores the magic that can be created with the basic components of the table candles linens centerpieces china glassware and silver Candles lights the way offering elegant inspiration for bringing the gentle celebratory intimacy of candles to your table at romantic dinners for two festive parties spontaneous gatherings of friends or anytime you want to create an unforgettable occasion
