Canopus in Argos: Archives Doris Lessing,1983 Documents Relating to the Sentimental Agents in the Volyen Empire
Doris Lessing,1994-05 The fifth and final volume in Doris Lessing's visionary novel cycle Canopus in Argos Archives It is a mix of fable futuristic fantasy and pseudo documentary accounts of 20th century history Documents Relating to the Sentimental Agents in the Volyen Empire Doris Lessing,1983 An interplanetary agent on leave from service on Earth Shikasta reports to his superior from an Earth like planet called Volyen The Sentimental Agents in the Volyen Empire (Canopus in Argos: Archives Series, Book 5) Doris Lessing,2012-05-31 From Doris Lessing winner of the Nobel Prize for Literature the fifth and final instalment in the visionary novel cycle Canopus in Argos Archives Documents Relating to the Sentimental Agents in the Volyen Empire; Canopus in Argos: Archives Doris Lessing,1983 The Sentimental Agents in the Volyen Empire Doris Lessing,1983 The Secret Life of Genius John Chambers,2009-06-25 A look at the metaphysical experiences that shaped the lives and work of 24 great men and women from the Renaissance to modern times Chronicles the changing relationship with God nature and spirituality from the 16th century to the 20th century Includes encounters with the paranormal of Ben Johnson Isaac Newton Mary Shelley Leo Tolstoy Doris Lessing and Winston Churchill What role did the esoteric thought of Swedenborg play in the creative output of Honor de Balzac Did a supernatural encounter prompt Mary Wollstonecraft Shelley to focus her work on the theme of immortality Building on his earlier research on communications with the spirit world that Victor Hugo author of Les Mis rables experienced while in exile on the isle of Jersey John Chambers now looks at the role occult knowledge and supernatural experiences played in the lives of 24 geniuses His investigation spans the life and work of William Blake Helena Blavatsky and W B Yeats whose esoteric interests are well known as well as those little suspected of such encounters with worlds beyond ours including Doris Lessing Leo Tolstoy Norman Mailer Yukio Mishima and Winston Churchill Chambers presents more than a collection of anecdotes and newly revealed secrets His research provides insightful historical context of the decisive turning point that took place with the collapse of Prague the occult capital of Europe in 1620 which resulted in the victory of Cartesian reality and Newton's scientific paradigm over the esoteric traditions that flourished until that time The magical and occult world shown in the lives of these 24 great men and women offers us a glimpse of what could still be ours a world that though it is now overshadowed by modern scientific and technological principles is yet still visible on the horizon through the visions and paranormal experiences of these geniuses The Subject of Race in American Science Fiction Sharon DeGraw,2006-12-19 While the connections between science fiction and race have largely been neglected by scholars racial identity is a key element of the subjectivity constructed in American SF In his Mars series Edgar Rice Burroughs primarily supported essentialist constructions of racial identity but also included a few elements of racial egalitarianism Writing in the 1930s George S Schuyler revised Burroughs normative SF triangle of white author white audience and white protagonist and promoted an individualistic highly variable concept of race instead While both Burroughs and Schuyler wrote SF focusing on racial identity the largely separate genres of science fiction and African American literature prevented the similarities between the two authors from being adequately acknowledged and explored Beginning in the 1960s Samuel R Delany more fully joined SF and African American literature Delany expands on Schuyler s racial constructionist approach to identity including gender and sexuality in addition to race Critically intertwining the genres of SF and African American literature allows a critique of the racism in the science fiction and a more accurate and positive portrayal of the scientific connections in the African American literature Connecting the popular fiction of Burroughs the controversial career of Schuyler and the postmodern texts of Delany illuminates a gradual change from a stable essentialist construction of racial identity at the turn of the century to the variable social construction of poststructuralist subjectivity today Doris Lessing Elizabeth Maslen,2014 This study covers the full range of Doris Lessing s work and explores in detail both its form and content From The Grass is Singing through to Alfred and Emily her main concerns are shown to have a remarkable continuity both in her commitment to political and cultural issues and in her explorations of inner space The Fiction of Doris Lessing Ratna Raman,2021-10-15 Doris Lessing 1919 2013 a prolific contemporary author was awarded the Nobel Prize in Literature in 2007 for her life work Examining five decades of Lessing s unique life narrative strategies and the literary traditions that she drew upon and improvised this book highlights her extraordinary significance as a writer of our times and for our times Lessing s fiction and non fiction provide a seminal understanding of the key issues that shaped the twentieth century Autodidactic and keenly interested in the world around her Lessing flagged the problems of racism in Africa the inequity of class in modern England the limitations of white middle class women s movements that overlooked the rights of women across race and class the marginalisation of individuals the horror of nuclear war and the need for disarmament and the hazardous global expansion in the face of unrelenting technological progress Further she raised the concern of the atomisation of modern families violence and the urgent need for alternate modes of viewing voicing anxieties decades ahead of other contemporary writers Making futuristic projections through innumerable genres of writing such as realistic narratives memoirs diaries and science fiction Lessing examines myth psychoanalysis and Marxist perspectives engaging with a gamut of experiences that have defined modernity and sets up feminist blueprints that challenge atrophying patriarchal hegemonies C.G.Jung and Literary Theory S. Rowland,1999-04-26 C G Jung and Literary Theory remedies a significant omission in literary studies by doing for Jung and poststructuralist literary theories what has been achieved for Freud and Lacan Offering radically new Jungian theories of deconstruction feminism the body sexuality spirituality postcolonialism reader response the book also investigates the controversial occult and fascist heritage of Jung By using the work of Derrida Kristeva and Irigaray and examining Jungian fiction this book transforms modern literary theory in ways which simultaneously critique Jung s work Women Writers of Great Britain and Europe Katharina M. Wilson,Paul

Stories Doris Lessing, 2008-09-02 This wide ranging collection of the stories by the renowned Nobel Laureate spanning more than two decades of her astonishing career highlights her singular gifts for portraying the complex lives of men and women in a modern often alienating world Included are seminal stories like To Room Nineteen in which a woman reacts against the oppression of her banal marriage with dreadful results One off the Short List which traces the surprising conclusion to a seduction gone awry The Habit of Loving in which a lonely older man who takes a vivacious young wife witnesses an unexpected reversal of intimacy Here are two classic novellas as well The Temptation of Jack Orkney and The Other Woman which exemplify Lessing's grasp of the most essential human psychology. Rich and various in mood and background, the settings range across England and France; these stories powerfully convey the uncompromising insight, intelligence, and vision of one of the most ardently admired writers of our time.

Doris Lessing Carole Klein, 2000. Throughout her life, Doris Lessing broke the rules in both her personal life and within the accepted mores of literature. A trailblazer of the women's movement and an early experimenter with drugs, she gained notoriety in the sixties with her first novel The Grass is Singing and subsequently with her explosive Golden Notebook and the Children of Violence series. At the age of eighty, she remains part of the avant-garde.
