Canto Del Oeste Coreano:

Canto del oeste coreano Yi Chongjun, 2004 Esta colección de relatos es fruto de una meditación sobre el pensamiento y la vida del pueblo coreano Entre sus personajes hay cantores que deambulan incansablemente de sitio en sitio buscando el canto vivo de sus habitantes y la tierra que acoga sus restos después de la muerte Los coreanos desde tiempos remotos viven cantando y se llaman y comunican con melodías Las montañas los sembrados los mares y los ríos reciben sus cantos como plegarias y ofrendas El canto está estrechamente vinculado al lugar de nacimiento Fuera de él el peregrino cuando canta a ora su familia y su pueblo de origen El eje de la obra es la historia de una mujer ciega de niña por su padre un juglar que obedeciendo a una creencia popular piensa que de esa manera todas las facultades se concentrarán en la voz y el oído de la niña El tiempo demuestra lo cierto de esta creencia Ella con su bello y dramático canto hace volar una montaña como a una garza vuelve a la vida las olas en el terreno seco que antes había sido el lecho del mar y reanima la imaginación entera de un pueblo La voz y la visión sin los órganos de la vista se convierten así para el autor en metáfora que revela la frágil belleza de la existencia humana

From Koreanness to K-ness Seryun Lee, 2026-04-30 From Koreanness to K-ness Contemporary Korean Culture and Society aims to conceptualise K-ness as a new way of understanding the underlying characteristics that shape the semiotic cultural and sociological representations of contemporary Korean culture and society The global popularity of Korean cultural content has sparked extensive interest in various facets of the Korean language culture and society These recent changes present a unique opportunity to reassess and reshape our approach to the theorisation of Koreanness as a strong national identity significantly influenced by Confucian values patriarchy and patriotism Indeed a multitude of K words including the ever popular domains of K pop K drama and K food reflect the diverse but coherent manifestations of the new Koreanness which often transcends the boundaries of tradition and history In this interdisciplinary edited volume the contributors provide fresh insights into the new Koreanness that has been reshaped by the current international popularity of Korean popular culture the emergence of new media and the cross cultural encounters in the more globalised environment By exploring themes topics and theories linked to ongoing discussions and emerging trends this book illuminates the multidimensional nature of K-ness
