Black Star One:

Under a Black Star Amari Johnson, 2025-06-24 Uncovering the spirit of freedom and self determination in New Orleans In Under a Black Star Amari Johnson explores what he defines as the maroon impulse among the BlackStar Community in the Algiers neighborhood of New Orleans This community sought autonomy for Black people facing systemic marginalization through denied employment insufficient education and a housing crisis following Hurricane Katrina establishing initiatives such as Kamali Academy a homeschool collective and BlackStar Books and Caff a bookstore and gathering place Instead of appealing to the city they built the community they desired by employing legacies of marronage disengagement flight and reengagement An active participant in the physical and ideological development of these autonomous spaces Johnson provides nuanced insights into the community s work toward liberation and self determination Demonstrating that marronage is a cultural tradition throughout the African Diaspora he focuses on the transtemporal maroon process to show how it is central to the pursuit of autonomy community and freedom From the swamps of southeastern Louisiana across urban obstacles and into BlackStar s creative spaces Johnson s path leads him to ask How did the New Orleans community mobilize the tradition of marronage to create autonomous spaces amid gentrification What forms might the maroon impulse take in the twenty first century This dynamic ethnographic memoir ultimately illuminates marronage as a potent form of liberatory potential offering strategies for similar communities across the country and around the world Percheron Stud Book of America Percheron Society of America, 1919

The Clock Shop Richard Ashland, 2006-02 Rikker felt his gut tightening up After thirty years as an intelligence officer he always thought six steps ahead of everyone else He always knew what to expect and most of the time he was right He didn t like surprises and avoided them by being better than the other guy But this was different he d been caught off guard and he had no idea of what to expect In the back of his head he could hear Mary s voice saying what if Charles what if Colonel Charles Rikker is too logical to believe that anything mysterious or dark has entered his life He s risked his life for countless covert operations and he has always known the risks involved But this journey is only a project a simple trip to find an antique grandfather clock His mind is as fit as his body but nothing could prepare Charles for the Emit Levart Clock Shop The entire world has heard and seen reports of the unexplained deaths of some of the world s most prominent scientists and engineers and also of America s favorite billionaire But Charles learns the horrifying truth only because it came to him in the clock shop He doesn t know why he has been chosen but he does know that if he tries to explain the peculiar circumstances no one will believe him anyway Percheron Stud Book of America Percheron Horse Association of America, 1917 American Breeder, 1918 The American Government, Organization and Officials, with the Duties and Powers of Federal Office Holders Henry Colford Gauss, 1908 Living the Sky Ray A.
