The New Cavalcade Arthur Paul Davis,Jay Saunders Redding,Joyce Ann Joyce,1991 Selected stories poems and plays trace the development of black American literature since colonial times

The Prentice Hall Anthology of African American Literature Rochelle Smith,Sharon Lynette Jones,2000 B Tracing African American literary and artistic contributions from the 1700s to the 1990s this anthology presents a diverse collection that includes fiction nonfiction poetry drama speeches songs paintings and photography Readers learn about historical context literary content and rhetorical strategies while exploring sections on The Colonial Period 1746 1800 The Reconstruction Period 1865 1900 The Harlem Renaissance Period 1900 1940 The Protest Movement 1940 1959 The Black Aesthetics Movement 1960 1969 The Neo Realism Movement 1970 Present and Literary Criticism For those interested in African American literature art and history

Race, Work, and Family in the Lives of African Americans Marlese Durr,Shirley Ann Hill,2006 Sadly efforts to end racial segregation and discrimination have clearly not led to racial equality or a colorblind society Rather African Americans have become increasingly class polarized since the civil rights era as the persistent racialization of American society has perpetuated the wage gap between Blacks and Whites leading to increased rates of unemployment and underemployment among African Americans The significant minority of Black families historically headed by single mothers became a statistical majority during the twentieth century and the tension in the gender relations of Black men and women became a more prominent topic of debate This compelling and timely collection examines contemporary family and workforce patterns and how they are continuing to shape the quality of life for African Americans across the United States
