Blair Resources Teaching Writing Ruth Spack,1994-01-01 Blair Resources Teaching Writing Fulwiler,Harvey Kail,John Trimbur,1994-01-01 Blair Resources Teaching Writing Art Young,Cynthia Y. Young,1994 Blair Resources Teaching Writing Deborah H. Holdstein,1994-01-01 Blair Handbook Classroom Strategies Fulwiler,Wendy Bishop,1994-01-01 The Theory and Practice of Grading Writing Frances Zak,Christopher C. Weaver,1998-02-05 CHOICE 1998 Outstanding Academic Books Grading is one of the thorniest issues writing teachers must deal with yet surprisingly little has been written on this topic As writing teachers move increasingly toward practices that focus on writing as a process they face a growing need to reconsider their systems of grading to determine whether or not these systems support their pedagogies The authors interrogate the grading of individual papers as well as portfolios and the assigning of end of term grades This collection explores the issues and problems that have emerged as conventional grading practices have lagged behind and been challenged by new theories of language While the book will be of interest to theorists Zak and Weaver have also made the book relevant and useful to teachers whose primary interest is the practical consequences of theory in their classrooms Where theoretical discussion takes place the language is clear and accessible Many of the authors write directly from personal experience telling stories of the classroom or writing of new techniques and approaches they have tried They speak with the voices of teachers and the tone and content of their words convey a sense of the immediacy of the topic Contemporary Composition Studies Edith Babin,Kimberly Harrison,1999-12-30 Composition studies is a rapidly growing and constantly changing field At present however graduate students new to the field and writing teachers who want to make new connections between theory and practice have little choice of current reference works that define key terms in composition studies and provide information about the scholars and researchers who have shaped and are shaping the discipline This book supplies this information in an easily accessible format and places both scholars and terms in the context of the field s development Included are alphabetically arranged entries for 108 individuals who have developed the field and 128 terms central to the discipline The first part of the book provides entries for leaders in composition studies Each entry identifies the areas in which the scholar has contributed most influentially to the field and provides both a chronological overview of the person s contributions and a bibliography of representative works The second part includes entries for terms that are problematic both for newcomers and for those already familiar with the discipline The entries for the terms show how the disciplinary context has shaped the ways in which they have been used The entries also indicate how established thinkers in composition studies and other disciplines have explained or defined the terms provide examples of the terms in context and list scholars often associated with them An appendix includes entries for scholars from other disciplines who have contributed to the field The Writing Teacher's Sourcebook Edward P. J. Corbett,Nancy Myers,Gary Tate,2000 Now in its fourth edition this widely acclaimed sourcebook remains one of the most up to date and inclusive works on teaching writing today In this edition the editors have added twelve new essays and deleted several from the previous edition making the content as timely as possible Emphasizing the importance of adapting good pedagogy to multiple environments and audiences this unique collection features some of the most intellectually exciting and pedagogically sound articles in the field The Writing Teacher's Sourcebook 4 e is the definitive resource for beginning and experienced teachers alike The Journal Book for Teachers of At-risk College Writers Susan Gardner, Toby Fulwiler, 1999 Educators across the grades and across the curriculum have long recognized the usefulness of journals to help student writers But what about basic writers learning disabled students and nontraditional and returning students One of the values of journal writing is its accessibility yet no one has seemed to consider how at risk students might benefit With this new collection the first of its kind Susan Gardner and Toby Fulwiler provide much needed advice The authors of these essays are all experienced teachers of at risk writers both at two and four year colleges They know the at risk students they are describing Some readers will recognize the students as basic writers in basic writing courses Others will find chapters written by writing center directors who serve a variety of students we might term as at risk There are also chapters from educators who work specifically with Deaf students ADHD students and learning disabled students Each one describes uses of the journal and the adjustments to the assignment that make the journal such an accessible and instructive writing genre

Resources in Education, 1989 WPA, Writing Program Administration, 2001 The Allyn and Bacon Guide to Writing Portfolios Gina Claywell, 2001 This brief and inexpensive book helps students compile effective portfolios for a variety of situations and courses Shows students how to understand what type of portfolio is called for recognize the material most appropriate for inclusion and submit a portfolio that shows learning This guide does not approach portfolios as the driving force of a course rather it teaches students who are asked to submit portfolios with or without direct instructor supervision how to construct successful portfolios Anyone looking to compile a portfolio

Academic Writing Consulting and WAC Jeffrey Jablonski, 2006 This book provides theoretical models and practical methods for helping writing teachers and writing program administrators within postsecondary institutions conduct the interdisciplinary collaborative consulting activities that are common with formal and information writing across the curriculum WAC programs It specifically discusses how to conduct the day to day work of negotiating close working partnerships with faculty in other disciplines and is the first book length treatment to do so The book deepens current understandings of how writing specialist collaborate with non writing specialists in academic contexts and provides a map for structuring successful collaborations in the future The Allyn and Bacon Guide to Writing Center Robert W. Barnett, Jacob S. Blumner, 2001 The Allyn Bacon Guide to Writing Center Theory and Practice offers in unparalleled breadth and depth the major scholarship on writing centers This up to date resource for students instructors and scholars anthologizes essays on all major areas of interest to writing center theorists and practitioners Seven sections provide a comprehensive view of writing centers history progress theorizing the writing center defining the writing center's place writing across the curriculum the practice of tutoring cultural issues and technology Journal of Teaching Writing, 2004 Collaborative Learning Harvey Kail, John Trimbur, 1997 Resources in Education, 1997 Classroom Strategies Wendy Bishop, 1994 The AALS Directory of Law Teachers, 2007 The Allyn & Bacon Sourcebook for College Writing Teachers James C. McDonald, 1996 Designed for college writing teachers who are faced with teaching composition for the first time or re-examining their teaching goals and methods The Allyn Bacon Sourcebook for College Writing Teachers is a collection of writings on important theories and pedagogies in composition studies The selections discuss a range of theories and approaches to teaching writing and present readers with a number of options for instruction rather than a single way to teach Written by some of today's foremost scholars and teachers the articles range from discussing how to integrate critical thinking and reading into writing instruction to methods for responding to and evaluating student writing to dealing with grammar and editing For those who teach writing
