Cabas Et Containers:

Globalization from Below Gordon Mathews, Gustavo Lins Ribeiro, Carlos Alba Vega, 2012-08-21 This book explores globalization as actually experienced by most of the world's people buying goods from street vendors brought by traders moving past borders and across continents under the radar of the law The dimensions and practices of globalization from below are depicted and analyzed in detail by a team of international scholars Topics covered include the New Silk Road African traders in China street hawking in Calcutta and pirate CDs in Mexico The chapters provide intimate portrayals of routes markets and people in locations across the globe and explore theories that can help make sense of these complex and fascinating case studies Students of globalization economic anthropology and developing world economics will find the book invaluable

The Force of Obedience Beatrice Hibou, 2011-06-27 The events that took place in Tunisia in January 2011 were the spark igniting the uprisings that swept across North Africa and the Middle East toppling dictators and leading to violent conflict and tense stand offs What was it about this small country in North Africa that enabled it to play this exceptional role This book is a deeply informed account of the exercise of power in Tunisia in the run up to the revolt that forced its authoritarian ruler Ben Ali into exile It analyses the practices of domination and repression that were pervasive features of everyday life in Tunisia showing how the debt economy and the systems of social solidarity and welfare created forms of subjection and mutual dependence between rulers and ruled enabling the reader to understand how a powerful protest movement could develop despite tight control by police and party For those wishing to understand the extraordinary events unfolding across the Arab world this rich subtle and insightful book is the indispensable starting point

European Immigration Anna Triandafyllidou, Ruby Gropas, 2026-02-02 Fully updated and containing chapters on the new EU member states and the attempt to form a common EU migration policy this new edition of European Immigration A Sourcebook provides a comprehensive overview of the trends and developments in migration in all EU countries With chapters following a common structure to facilitate direct international comparisons it not only examines the internal affairs of each member state but also explores both migratory trends within the EU itself and the implications for European immigration of wider global events including the Arab Spring and the world financial crisis

Digital Migration Koen Leurs, 2023-04-28 A revelation for digital researchers and a provocation for migration scholars It introduces an insightful inspiring and inviting way of making sense of the messiness without losing hope of changing things Nishant Shah Chinese University of Hong Kong A must read for everyone who is concerned with questions of human mobility media and communications and the digital border Myria Georgiou LSE A much needed addition to scholarship on mobility technology and migration The book is poised to become a touchstone text C L Quinan University of Melbourne In contemporary discussions on migration digital technology is often seen as a smart disruptive tool Bringing efficiencies to management and safety to migrants But the reality is always more complex This book is a comprehensive and impassioned account of the relationship between digital technology and migration From top down governmental and corporate shaping of the migrant condition to the bottom up of digital practices helping migrants connect engage and resist Taking an interdisciplinary approach Digital Migration explores The power relations of digital infrastructures across migrant recruitment transportation and communication Migrant connections and the use of digital devices platforms and networks Dominant digital representations of migrants and how they re resisted The affect and emotion of digital migration from digital intimacy to transnational family life How histories of pre and early digital migration help us situate and rethink contemporary research The realities of researching digital migration including interviews with leading international researchers Critical yet hopeful Koen Leurs opens up the unequal power relations at the heart of digital migration studies challenging us to imagine more just alternatives Koen Leurs is an Associate Professor in Gender Media and Migration Studies at the Graduate Gender Program Department of Media and Culture Utrecht University the Netherlands All author royalties for this book will be donated to the Alarm Phone a hotline for boatpeople in distress
