Cahiers Notebooks Volume 2:

Paul Klee: Notebooks, Volume 2 Paul Klee, 1973 Unselfing Michaela Hulstyn, 2022-08-31 Altered states of consciousness including experiences of deprivation pain hallucination fear desire alienation and spiritual transcendence can transform the ordinary experience of selfhood Unselfing explores the nature of disruptive self experiences and the different shapes they have taken in literary writing The book focuses on the tension between rival conceptions of unselfing as either a form of productive self transcendence or a form of alienating self loss Michaela Hulstyn explores the shapes and meanings of unselfing through the framework of the global French literary world encompassing texts by modernist figures in France and Belgium alongside writers from Algeria Rwanda and Morocco Together these diverse texts prompt a re evaluation of the consequences of the loss or the transcendence of the self Through a series of close readings Hulstyn offers a new account of the ethical questions raised by altered states and shows how philosophies of empathy can be tested against and often challenged by literary works Drawing on cognitive science and phenomenology Unselfing provides a new methodology for approaching texts that give shape to the fringes of conscious experience The Book as Artefact, Text and Border Anne Mette Hansen, 2005 Books do not just contain texts books themselves are cultural artefacts which convey many meanings in their own right meanings which interact with the texts they contain Awareness of the many significances of books as cultural and textual objects reshapes the traditional disciplines of textual theory analytic bibliography codicology and palaeography while the advent of electronic books and digital methods for representing print books is introducing a new dimension to our understanding Seven essays in this volume ranging over medieval Portuguese and Swedish manuscripts eighteenth century Icelandic editions Australian playtexts Thackeray and Anita Brookner and Stefan George consider these questions from the broad perspective of textual scholarship Texts may exist on the borderland of word and not word or they may spring from borderlands of nation or culture or they may be considered from the margins of neighbouring disciplines So readers must set the texts within contexts to see the play of text against border Essays in this volume explore different texts against varying backgrounds Pound s Cantos Joyce s Ulysses Trollope s An Eye for an Eye Woolf s The Waves while essays by McGann and Lernout argue the dimensionality of text on the intersection of print and digital media Implicit in all these essays is the contention that textual scholarship must influence literary interpretation Two final essays focus directly on this in the cases of Melville s Moby Dick and Emily Dickinson s late fragments An extensive reviews section completes this volume The Wall Beside the Work Derek Pigrum, 2021-06-23 This book is about the way artists generate an endless chain of substitute objects for something they can never quite find It explores the work involved in art with a focus upon finding gathering and assembling charged and auratic objects on the wall beside the work The author employs the term Das Gegenwerk or the work towards the work This concept avoids definitive closure and expands the notion of drafting and related practices to include qualitative research methods The multi mode transitional practices of Das Gegenwerk are devoid of any demand for a preconceived goal but instead hinge upon the provisional and indeterminate As such it is a far cry from the binary logic of the computer and the design cycle but is of interest to an audience engaged with both Das Gegenwerk hinges on our capacity to respond to the outside rather than the inwardness often attributed to creative agency A fundamental belief of the book is that by investigating and adapting the practices of expert practitioners we can gain an understanding of high level creativity It is neither a recipe nor a linear or cyclic approach Rather artistic creation is an interweave of transitional multi mode practices where the overriding emphasis is on the handling or habituation of transitional materials in physical place The author addresses the urgent need to provide a balance between the promise of new technology and our capacity to both respond to and work with what the world bestows

Teaching Creativity Derek Pigrum,2011-11-03 This study is concerned with creativity in education especially in arts education broadly conceived to include the visual arts music and creative writing It takes as its starting point Nietzsche s view that works of art do not appear as if by magic Using insights from philosophy psychoanalysis and semiotics the book examines the creative processes of many artists in different media showing how art works often result from processes of construction deconstruction and reconstruction that may be long and laborious Pigrum demonstrates how teachers and their students in all sectors of education may gain from a better systematic understanding of such processes

Notebooks Paul Valéry,Paul Gifford,2000 The Cahiers Notebooks of Paul Val ry are a unique form of writing They reveal Val ry as one of the most radical and creative minds of the twentieth century encompassing a wide range of investigation into all spheres of human activity His work explores the arts the sciences philosophy history and politics investigating linguistic psychological and social issues all linked to the central questions relentlessly posed what is the human mind and how does it work what is the potential of thought and what are its limits But we encounter here too Val ry the writer exploratory fragmentary texts undermine the boundaries between analysis and creativity between theory and practice Neither journal nor diary eluding the traditional genres of writing the Notebooks offer lyrical passages writing of extreme beauty prose poems of extraordinary descriptive power alongside theoretical considerations of poetics ironic aphorisms and the most abstract kind of analysis The concerns and the insights that occupied Val ry s inner voyages over more than 50 years remain as ever for the contemporary reader for the Self that is his principal subject is at once singular and universal

Reading Writing Julien Gracq, 2006 Every reader is a potential writer and every writer is a reader in actuality Reading Writing is a subjective history of fiction and poetry and a personal meditation on the links between literature and two visual arts painting and cinema Gracq's poetics is founded upon the basic acts of reading and writing and on the relationship between the writer and his language This first English language edition of En lisant en écrivant will mark a turning point in the public reception of Julien Gracq The New Wave James Monaco, 1976 Analyse van de Nouvelle Vague een stroming in de Franse film uit de jaren 1960 1970 gezien vanuit Amerikaans standpunt
