Under his leadership a side more famous for its batting collapses and ability to seize defeat from the jaws of victory discovered its backbone. With coach Duncan Fletcher he put some steel into the side they became a difficult team to beat. Hussain wore his heart on his sleeve railing against complacency, defying critics of his place in the batting line up and making a principled stand at the last World Cup when the ECB seemed incapable of it. Gaius describes the players, competitions and organisation and much more in vivid detail. The book includes chapters on rebuilding the club house, the Artisans schools section, scratch and first teams. Past and current members will find the book a joy to read. The book also includes several hundred photos taken by Gaius through the ages including players, competitions, events and celebrations. Gaius, also known as Gus, is a retired construction manager based in Hertfordshire. Since joining the Berkhamsted golf club in 1962, Gus has been an avid golfer and has been involved in every aspect of the club's organisation for over 25 years. He was club captain in 1993 and has led the scratch and school section. Gaius, a category one golfer for over 40 years, currently enjoys as much golf as he can and still plays off of a handicap of 2 and is loving every minute of it      One-act Plays for Stage and Study, Fifth Series ,1929      The Emotional Lives of Animals Marc Bekoff, 2024-04-09 A seminal exploration of animal emotion, sentience and cognition, revised and expanded to incorporate a surge of new science. When award-winning scientist Marc Bekoff penned the first edition of this book in 2007, he predicted that over time our understanding of animal cognition and emotion would grow richer, more accurate and possibly different. Since then, not only has the field seen an explosion of new and startling research, but the popular interest in the subject has grown as well, spawning countless podcasts, articles and bestselling books. Bekoff skillfully blends extraordinary stories of animal joy, empathy, grief, embarrassment, anger and love with the latest scientific research, confirming the existence of emotions that common sense and experience have long implied. Filled with light humor and compassion, The Emotional Lives of Animals is a clarion call for reassessing both how we view and how we treat animals      Illustrated Sporting & Dramatic News ,1907      The Era Almanack ,1911      Mr. & Mrs. John Brown at Home John Brown (pseud.),1893
