Capture a City Through Praise Rachel V. Jeffries, 2010-12

Capture a City through Praise is a book which reveals a fresh way of thinking concerning our spiritual authority which Christ has given to those who accept their place. The sky is the limit when it comes to offering the sacrifice of praise with heartfelt emotions toward God. The intensity of the teaching will motivate you to develop a grateful heart. This book has been published in over twelve languages and on the best seller list for many years. It is a revised version with photos of marvelous things that happened as a result of the book going to the nations. It shows at an early age how the author had doors open to her which thrust her into her life's work as speaker, musician, author, preacher, and revivalist. Her experiences and teaching will alert you to new dimensions for your life. She emphasizes not only is praise a verbal expression but one which involves your whole person: spirit, soul, and body. This book is the cutting edge of spiritual dominion. It is an anointed prophetic encouraging book.

The Conquest of Santarém and Goswin's Song of the Conquest of Alcácer do Sal Jonathan Wilson, 2021-05-26

Achieved at the height of the Crusades, the Christian conquests of Santarém in 1147 by King Afonso I and of Alcácer do Sal in 1217 by Portuguese forces and northern European warriors on their way by sea to Palestine were crucial events in the creation of the independent kingdom of Portugal. The two texts presented here survive in their unique thirteenth-century manuscript copies appended to a codex belonging to one of Europe's most important monastic library collections accumulated in the Cistercian abbey of Alcobaça founded c. 1153 by Bernard of Clairvaux. Accompanied by comprehensive introductions and here translated into English for the first time, these extraordinary texts are based on eyewitness testimony of the conquests. They contain much detail for the military historian, including data on operational tactics and the ideology of Christian holy war in the twelfth and early thirteenth centuries. Literary historians too will be delighted by the astonishing styles deployed, demonstrating considerable authorial flamboyance, flair, and innovation. While they are likely written by Goswin of Bossut, the search for authorship yields an impressive array of literary friends and associates, including James of Vitry, Thomas of Cantimpré, Oliver of Paderborn, and Caesarius of Heisterbach.

Urban Panegyric and the Transformation of the Medieval City, 1100-1300 Paul Oldfield, 2018-12-27

This study offers the first extensive analysis of the function and significance of urban panegyric in the Central Middle Ages, a flexible literary genre which enjoyed a marked and renewed popularity in the period 1100 to 1300. In doing so, it connects the production of urban panegyric to major underlying transformations in the medieval city and explores praise of cities primarily in England, Flanders, France, Germany, Iberia, and Italy, including the South and Sicily. The volume demonstrates how laudatory ideas on the city appeared in extremely diverse textual formats which had the potential to interact with a wide audience via multiple textual and material sources. When contextualized within the developments of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries, these ideas could reflect more than formulaic rhetorical outputs for an educated elite; they were instead integral to the process of urbanisation.
