The Children's record of the Presbyterian Church in England, 1872 Giving and Receiving by Faith, Continent, 1919 Woman of Contentment, Discover how to be A Woman of Contentment through a study of Ecclesiastes Begat David Crystal, 2010-09-23 Let there be light A fly in the ointment New wine in old bottles How are the mighty fallen The salt of the earth All these everyday phrases owe their popularity to the King James Bible. Indeed it is said that this astonishing Bible has contributed more to the color and grace of the English language than almost any other literary source. In Begat best selling language expert David Crystal offers a stimulating tour of the verbal richness and incredible reach of the King James Bible. How can a work published in 1611 have had such a lasting influence on the language? To answer this question Crystal offers fascinating discussions of phrases such as The skin of one's teeth or Out of the mouth of babes tracing how these memorable lines have found independent life in the work of poets, playwrights, novelists, politicians, and journalists, and how more recently they have been taken up with enthusiasm by advertisers, Hollywood, and hip hop. He shows, for instance, how Let there be light has resurfaced as Let there be lite the title of a diet cookbook and Let there be flight the title of an article about airport delays. Along the way Crystal reminds us that the King James Bible owes much to earlier translations, notably those by Wycliffe in the fourteenth century and Tyndale in the sixteenth. But he also underscores crucial revisions made by King James's team of translators, contrasting the memorable Am I my brother's keeper with Wycliffe's Am I the keeper of my brother. Language lovers and students of the Bible will be equally enthralled by Begat and its engaging look at the intersection of religion and literature.

Cuttings P. Annetta Peckham, 1877 Friends' Weekly Intelligencer, 1887 The Journey Back: a Reflective Devotional William Layton Nelson, 2021-11-03 Dear Friends I invite you now to take a scenic ride with me on the memory train to somewhere in the past. This is a reflective devotional that journeys into our past thoughts, dreams, ideas, and events to discover how God communicates to us through each of them to impact our today and shape our tomorrow. Taking a journey back in time will not always produce good and pleasurable results. The purpose of the trip down memory lane is not to avenge injustices of the past. The memories, whether painful or pleasant, are recorded to recall how God has brought us through situations and use circumstances as teaching moments. If also your journey is a mission of recompensing some kindly deeds rendered for which you desire to show gratitude, then journey on. On this journey we will encounter peace, heavenly peace which only flows from the Holy City of God. I pray that you will be blessed as we journey together.
