Catch The Age Wave:

Catch the Age Wave Win Arn, Charles Arn, 1993 It is time to reexamine our ideas of senior adult ministry Comfortable assumptions and outdated programs are being challenged in a time when an increasing number of seniors do not regularly attend church Authors Win and Charles Arn have updated and supplemented their classic book Catch the Age Wave in an effort to provide ideas examples and advice for starting and maintaining a senior adult program In addition they have added practical program ideas to use in any local church setting International Advances in Adoption Research for Practice Gretchen Miller Wrobel, Elsbeth Neil, 2009-01-12 This is a unique compilation of cross cultural and international attitudes towards adoption research and outcomes Whilst informal adoption of children has probably always existed across all human societies this work is timely in that interest in the role of legal adoption as both a child welfare solution and as a means of alternative family formation for adults wanting to become parents has never been higher This book is an edited collection of 13 papers based on invited keynote presentations or paper symposia presentations given at the Second International Conference on Adoption Research ICAR2 2006 It gives a unique Cross cultural look at adoption from worldwide multidisciplinary community of distinguished and emerging adoption researchers International appeal with different countries laws attitudes and outcomes fully explored RTS Ministry, 1988 Coming of Age David Goulet, 2017-03-30 Coming of age is difficult at any time but for young men in the late 60s it was particularly stressful The military draft was going to be implemented by President Nixon while the Vietnam War raged on The country had been in turmoil the past few years with events occurring that impacted the direction the country and its youth would take Dan Horning had been a star athlete in high school and hoped for an athletic scholarship to college He was battling a strained relationship with his father who wanted him to join the military while he worked in a foundry But a chance meeting at a local college would soon set him on a new path Diane Rosen knew she wanted to attend the University of Miami since she was a little girl She was bright determined and focused Just the opposite of Dan who would transfer to the same school The two would meet by accident under less than ideal circumstances Dan hoped to get to know Diane after their encounter but she felt very differently about him When a series of events occurred at the university out of Dan's control that made playing basketball impossible he changed his major much to the frustration of his father and his college career took off Success in school didn't help Dan at home but things were changing with Diane But things still bothered Dan so he took up surfing and bought a motorcycle to replace the basketball fiasco A serious medical event would happen affecting both Dan and Diane as they neared graduation and would change their lives forever Interspersed with numerous current events of that tumultuous era Coming of Age tells the story of two college students trying to find their way and the challenges they faced individually and together wanting to succeed But tragedy would ultimately strike and one of them would never be the same Tomorrow Never Comes: Coming of Age in Saigon 1969 Robert Boriskin, 2025-09-15 On December 27 1967 while on a road trip to Florida from California to do some surfing and find himself Rob found out he had been drafted He didn't know much about the war but was surrounded by the Anti War movement He spent his trip back to California deciding whether or not to serve and talking to the people he met on the way home This was the most difficult decision of his life Rob had flunked out of college and the road trip was designed to help him find himself but serving in the military was not one of the options he was considering He decided to serve and committed to making it a good experience He then spent almost two years in the Army After Basic Training and Advanced Individual Training he found out he was on his way to Vietnam He spent 14 months in Vietnam in a non combat assignment in Saigon from June of 1968 to August of 1969 He came of age in Vietnam He met a Vietnamese woman there who not only helped him come of age but also introduced him to love This is a very different Vietnam War story Rob was driven to write this story by discussions he had with hundreds of veterans who served during that period Almost three million soldiers served in the Vietnam War each with a unique experience yet most of the stories we hear about Vietnam tell a very different tale I hope this book offers readers a fresh perspective on the Vietnam War

Littell's Living Age, 1910 The Living Age, 1892 The International Pentecostal Holiness Advocate, 1993 Promoting Health and Addressing Disparities Amongst Indigenous Populations Esteban Ortiz-Prado, Jorge Vasconez-Gonzalez, Rene L. Begay, Juan Sebastian Izquierdo-Condoy, 2025-01-31 Indigenous populations have experienced centuries of oppression marginalization and discrimination In the present day this has left these populations even more vulnerable as they must confront a significant number of public health challenges to uphold their health and well being Indigenous peoples life expectancy is up to twenty years lower compared to non Indigenous people which can be attributed to the fact that these populations have an increased likelihood to be disproportionately affected by social determinants of health with poorer health outcomes These health outcomes contribute to the wide range of health burdens and disparities experienced by Indigenous populations including increased prevalence of chronic disease infectious disease and availability and accessibility of quality health care and treatment

Boomernomics William Paul Sterling, Stephen R. Waite, 1998 In this powerful prescient book economists and financial wizards William Sterling and Stephen Waite take an in depth look at how America's baby boomers have transformed the nation's and the world's economy and how that transformation must inevitably and radically alter its course as the boomers age But the economic big chill won't freeze you if you're prepared for it As Sterling and Waite show there are strategies we can use both as private individuals and collectively as a nation to prosper during the age wave Privatizing social security applying market principles to the health care system rethinking the concept of retirement tapping creatively into the potential gold mine on the Internet using demographics to pinpoint growth industries these are among the prescriptive suggestions that the authors who successfully manage over 30 billion show will work just as successfully for you
