Lessons from Bernard Rudofsky Architektur Zentrum Wien,2007 What we need is not a new way of building but a new way of living so the subtitle of one of Rudofsky's last works Setting out from the assumption that the design of every single room in a house is based on a physical function one place to lie the body down to rest another to take in food a third to step into a tub to bath Bernard Rudofsky 1905-88 believed architecture served to stimulate the senses and refine everyday culture His conception of architecture and design is more topical today than ever Internationally renowned in his day for the exhibitions he created for MoMA in the 1940s and 1950s today he is remembered above all for his sharp tongued witty writings which still speak to a broad audience Lessons from Bernard Rudofsky is more than a collection of essays by experts and introduction to the complex concept of architecture and living of a cosmopolitan and unconventional thinker the rich visual material conveys his philosophy I believe that sensory pleasure should take precedence over intellectual pleasure in art and architecture

Nottingham French Studies ,2000 Integrating Islam Jonathan Laurence,Justin Vaisse,2007-02-01 Nearly five million Muslims call France home the vast majority from former French colonies in North Africa While France has successfully integrated waves of immigrants in the past this new influx poses a new variety of challenges much as it does in neighboring European countries Alarmists view the growing role of Muslims in French society as a form of reverse colonization they believe Muslim political and religious networks seek to undermine European rule of law or that fundamentalists are creating a society entirely separate from the mainstream Integrating Islam portrays the more complex reality of integration s successes and failures in French politics and society From intermarriage rates to economic indicators the authors paint a comprehensive portrait of Muslims in France Using original research they devote special attention to the policies developed by successive French governments to encourage integration and discourage extremism Because of the size of its Muslim population and its universalistic definition of citizenship France is an especially good test case for the encounter of Islam and the West Despite serious and sometimes spectacular problems the authors see a French Islam slowly replacing Islam in France in other words the emergence of a religion and a culture that feels at home in and is largely at peace with its host society Integrating Islam provides readers with a comprehensive view of the state of Muslim integration into French society that cannot be found anywhere else It is essential reading for students of French politics and those studying the interaction of Islam and the West as well as the general public
