Canadian Reference Sources Mary E. Bond, Martine M. Caron, 1996 This bibliography cites those Canadian and foreign reference sources that describe Canadian people institutions organizations publications art literature languages and history It lists books of a general nature as well as works in the disciplines of history and the humanities. These large divisions are then broken down by subject genre type of document and province or territory. Titles of national provincial territorial or regional interest are included in every subject area when available. The contents of the book are indexed four ways by name title French subject and English subject. And to facilitate browsing the major reference books those dealing with more than one subject or a large geographical region are also cross referenced. Two entries have been created for each bilingual document in order to provide access and bibliographical descriptions in both of Canada's official languages. Entries for unilingual works include citation in the language of the publication and a bilingual annotation. The annotations are descriptive and provide information on the content arrangements and indexing of works the availability of non print formats previous editions and title changes and related works.

Canadian Reference Sources will be an invaluable reference tool for future scholars and researchers. Nation-Building, Education and Culture in India and Canada K. Gayithri, B. Hariharan, Suchorita Chattopadhyay, 2019-09-10. This volume provides comparative perspectives on issues related to education culture sustainable development and nation building in India and Canada. It takes cognizance of current research in Indo Canadian comparative studies and is meant to facilitate further research in these areas. It importantly highlights the trends and growth areas in comparative social science and humanities research between the countries. The chapters in this volume discuss the research that scholars have recently undertaken in both countries and the impact that such comparative research has on developing partnerships learning methodologies and socio cultural narratives that empower interdisciplinary research. The chapter authors take up important issues related to community college development mental health in education multilingual education indigenous populations and their education and development. They discuss issues related to bilateral and foreign trade agreements as well as policies of the two countries on climate change research. Lastly they discuss indigenous performance cultures and sports in the two countries and the long history of migration from India to Canada. The volume is of interest to a wide readership from the humanities and social sciences particularly readers interested in Indo Canadian scholarship. Daniel David Moses Tracey Lindberg, David Brundage, 2016-04-01. This work is a compelling examination and discussion of the work of Daniel David Moses. Including pieces by Indigenous and non Indigenous authors storytellers playwrights academics and artists participating in narratives writing and dialogues about Moses and his work the book is at once engaging grounded in comparative analysis and forceful.

Travelling Knowledges Renate Eigenbrod, 2005. In the context of decolonization the boundary between an Aboriginal text and the analysis by a non Aboriginal outsider poses particular challenges often constructed as unbridgeable. Eigenbrod argues that politically correct silence is not the answer but instead does a disservice to the literature that like all literature depends on being read taught and disseminated in various ways. In Travelling Knowledges Eigenbrod suggests decolonizing strategies when approaching Aboriginal texts as an outsider and challenges conventional notions of expertise. She concludes that literatures of colonized peoples have to be read ethically not only without colonial impositions of labels but also with the responsibility to read beyond the text or in Lee Maracle's words to become the architect of great social transformation. Features the works of Jeannette Armstrong Okanagan Louise Halfe Cree Margo Kane Sauteaux Cree Maurice Kenny Mohawk Thomas King Cherokee living in Canada Emma LaRocque Cree Metis Lee Maracle Sto lo Metis Ruby Slipperjack Anishnaabe Lorne Simon Miikmaq Richard Wagamese Anishnaabe and Emma Lee Warrior Peigan

The Concise Oxford Companion to Canadian Literature William Toye, 2001 The concise version of the critically acclaimed second edition of The Oxford Companion to Canadian Literature offers all the authority of the original in a smaller more affordable format. Entries have been updated and over sixty new entries have been added making it an indispensable resource.

Native North America Renée Hulan, 1999 Working against the conventional idea that Native North American literatures are primarily of anthropological and sociological value they emphasize the importance of artistic expression in the life of native communities.

Kunapipi, 1979 World Literature Today, 1999 Studies in American Indian Literatures, 2006

Australian Literary Studies, 2004 Drew Hayden Taylor Robert Nunn, 2008 The offspring of an Ojibway mother and a white father whom he has never known Drew Hayden Taylor has long addressed vexed issues of identity and the complicated relationship between Native people and whites with sharp insight and a frequently unsettling sense of humor. Carefully examining these writings this collection analyzes Taylor's writing from both aboriginal and non-aboriginal perspectives. Contributors include Birgit D. Wes Jonathan R.
