Another Mans Shoes:

Another Man's Shoes Bryan Guinness,1950 Stinkin Thinkin M. J. Gunn,2008-07-16 Paranoia London city of broken dreams and nervous breakdowns leading up to the year 2000 turns into schizophrenic insanity for Isaac a drink and drug addled young writer stuck in a chemical generation of getting wasted clubbing tripping watching Soap Opera TV A walking time bomb waiting to explode he takes on the persona of his new protagonist James to life threatening effect the answer to writing a masterpiece What happens when you begin to live life as the main character The wild Marie could be the first step towards achieving his goal But playing this dangerous game he ll be stuck with a dangerous female partner who couldn t care less about him Life begins to imitate art in famous faces musicians writers secret packages films petty crime violence and finally a gun Events spiral out of control in his double life as two worlds collide Isaac Versus James for control of his mind and personality THERE ARE NO INDIVIDUALS ANYMORE Isaac wants to be one whatever the cost

Documentary Expression and Thirties America William Stott,1986-06-15 A comprehensive inquiry into the attitudes and ambitions that characterized the documentary impulse of the thirties The subject is a large one for it embraces among much else radical journalism academic sociology the esthetics of photography Government relief programs radio broadcasting the literature of social work the rhetoric of political persuasion and the effect of all these on the traditional arts of literature painting theater and dance The great merit of Mr Stott s study lies precisely in its wide ranging view of this complex terrain Hilton Kramer New York Times Book Review Scott might be called the Aristotle of documentary No one before him has so comprehensively surveyed the achievement of the 1930s suggesting what should be admired what condemned and why no one else has so persuasively furnished an aesthetic for judging the form Times Literary Supplement

In Good Company Pete Lester,2025-07-20 Amid the firestorm of Vietnam one soldier clings to hope memory and the dream of going home Beau Le Mans is an Army photojournalist turned prisoner of war surviving captivity under the brutal hands of the Viet Cong As he endures starvation torture and psychological torment he finds unlikely companionship with a band of fellow prisoners and a fleeting connection with a mysterious Vietnamese woman named Polly Haunted by the death of his brother and the dreams of a life once lived in the hills of West Virginia Beau must summon the strength to lead to believe and to remember who he truly is And when passion unexpectedly blooms in the shadow of suffering Beau is forced to toss aside the blanket of longing and pride he s carried for too long In its place he embraces something deeper something that might just be worth surviving for A stirring lyrical novel inspired by real veterans stories In Good Company is a timeless portrait of resilience heartbreak and the unbreakable bonds formed in the darkest of places The Teething Intern WASEEM HASSAN,2013-12-03 This is a story of a medical intern in post apartheid South Africa It is a novel about the imperfections of society It follows the trials of a young muslim adult in a difficult world as he comes to grips with religion work and family As the title suggests we are all teething when it comes to life experiences The Publishers Weekly ,1924

Reflections on Mortality B. Glenn Wilkerson DMin, Robert B. Brooks PhD, 2017-02-23 Many of us fill our lives with so much work entertainment and fluff that we fail to consider the reality that our personal journeys on earth must someday come to an end This collection of essays and articles points out that human existence is a fragile terminal gift Accepting that encourages us to live dynamic purposeful lives Combining insights from thought leaders in the fields of medicine mental health and religion as well as hospice funeral directors and those who have faced life threatening situations the writers and editors of this book share their honest open views about death dying and the possibilities of an afterlife Enormously compelling and easy to read the book calls us to engage in passionate meaningful living in the here and now Start making every day count with Reflections on Mortality I found the book helpful in setting out so many issues surrounding our death and dying His Eminence Daniel Cardinal DiNardo President of the U S Conference of Catholic Bishops I found myself asking Why wasn't a book of this scope and impact available until now It is a true gift to all of us Robert J Wicks Psy D author of Perspective The Calm within the Storm Bounce Living the Resilient Life American Lumberman, 1912 *Hearings Before the House Select Committee on Lobbying Activities, House of Representatives, Eighty-first Congress, Second Session, Created Pursuant to H. make it your life s worth and although there are agents of fortune more capable than you are to do the work you can pretty much accomplish your dream all by yourself Good luck and wish you well You really need other people s help to begin with it in the first place To obtain the bright future you perceive is still possible and within reach you turn to communication and report the breach To fill the gap and lack of communication and inter and outer cooperation you take down and remove the communication barrier forever
