Arts-Based Pathways into Thinking Michael Crowhurst,Michael Emslie,2020-02-12 This book based on a critical collective auto ethnographic research project describes an assemblage of theoretically informed arts based methods that aim to promote multiplicity and thinking It explores multiplicities of knowing sensing doing and being generated by analyzing knowing frames poetry reading aloud fableing playwrighting and other inventive playful and scholarly ways of working with experiences and stories By offering engaging and inspiring strategies that can disturb standardizations and interrupt cultural normativities the book sheds light on the conditions that might be present in cultural contexts that enable diversity and creativity The research project on which this book is based originated from a contradictory set of conditions characterized on the one hand by a marked interest in creative research methods and novel knowledge practices and on the other hand by a widespread concern that we live in increasingly standardized times featuring systems that specify objectives ahead of time demand compliance and narrow the possibilities for human action The book takes readers on an arts based journey designed to enhance the opportunities for imaginative and ethical professional practice in education human services and the arts
