Asian Development Outlook 1993:

Asian Development Outlook, 1991 Banque asiatique de développement,1991 Asian Development Outlook 1997 and 1998 Asian Development Bank,1997 This is the current edition of the Asian Development Bank s annual survey of the progress made by its developing country members in Asia and the Pacific First published in 1989 the Outlook provides a thorough yet succinct summary of recent economic developments and current issues Economic trends and medium term prospects for the region are viewed against a background of development in the world economy Economic Growth and Political Change in Asia Graham Field,2016-07-27 This book looks at the main factors which have contributed to the strikingly strong growth of Asian economies in the last twenty five years It considers the economic policies adopted to promote such growth arguing that it will become increasingly difficult to sustain this The author then examines the inequalities generated by economic growth before considering the dynamics of the four different types of political system which have evolved in Asia veiled authoritarianism market Stalinism emerging bourgeois democracy and elite democracy

Economic Management and Transition Towards a Market Economy Anthony T.H. Chin,1996 Much attention has been focused in recent years on the transformation of the economies of Eastern and Central Europe and the former Soviet Union However a growing demand for policy advice technical assistance and expertise is also coming from Asian reforming countries such as China Mongolia Vietnam Laos and Cambodia In addition business communities abroad are increasingly interested in exploring investment and marketing opportunities in these reforming countries Such developments are too important to overlook or ignore The transformation of socialist economies towards market based systems entails an unusually wide range of problems Studies of related topics are complicated by the speed of the changes and the lack of clear historical precedents Although the structural features of Asian reforming economies are in important ways different from those of the Eastern European economies all socialist economies share similar fundamental conditions on the eve of economic reform which raise a similar set of reform issues This volume brings together a rich collection of expertise and information in an attempt to shed some light on the transitional process in Asia The contributions are by no means exhaustive However they provide the reader and analyst with an excellent starting point to the problems and prospects which are specific to Asian transforming economies The Southeast Asian Economic Miracle Young Kim,2018-04-17 There is widespread agreement that the world s most successful developing countries in the 1980s were those in Southeast Asia Following in the footsteps of postwar Japan and more recently Korea the populations of Thailand Malaysia Indonesia Singapore Hong Kong and the Philippines have made enormous strides in income industrial and agricultural production exports education health nutrition consumption and other development indicators This book brings together political scientists economists officials of Asian governments the United States and representatives of the multilateral banks to analyze and explain Southeast Asia s extraordinary growth Chapters and contributors to The Southeast Asian Economic Miracle include Recent Developments and

Future Prospects of Indonesia by Anwar Nasution The Economic Experience and Prospects of Thailand by Sukhumbhand Paribatra The Development of the Former Indochina States by Frederick Brown Trade and Investment in Southeast Asian Development by Stephen Parker and Managing Renewable Resources in Southeast Asia The Problem of Deforestation by Gareth Porter Among the critical questions that the contributors address are Is the success of the 1980s and early 1990s a permanent part of the world s economic landscape How will this region react to the growth of China s vast productive capacity and to the faltering of Japan s economy What will be the effect of U S military disengagement caused by domestic budgetary concerns and the end of the cold war The Southeast Asian Economic Miracle is an important study of the shifting winds of the political economy of growth in our time the movement away from a command to a free market environment It will be an essential resource for political scientists Asia area scholars economists and policymakers

Emerging Asian Fixed Income Markets Erik Banks,1994-11-17 The investor community is constantly looking for new sources of investment opportunity in the form of current income and capital gains Much of the focus by fund managers institutional investors and retail investors is currently on the global emerging markets of Asia where over 1 trillion of infrastructure and development projects will have to be funded over the next decade In recent months more institutions have been focusing on the fixed income markets where returns have been impressive The text from credit risk authority Erik Banks provides a detailed review of the emerging Asian fixed income markets and their primary instruments along with a discussion of market participants market mechanics and associated hedging and financing instruments

Annual Report for ... Asian Development Bank,1967 Economic and Social Survey of Asia and the Pacific Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific Staff,1998-02 The annual Survey provides an extensive annual review of current economic social trends within the Asian region analyzes these developments against the background of events in the world economy This publication is invaluable to every multinational corporation intending to expand their business in Asia or to invest in the region

Financial Deregulation and Trade Expansion Suiwah Leung,1994 One of a series of working papers put out by the Research School of Pacific and Asian Studies at the ANU Reviews the evidence linking exchange rate volatility to trade and presents arguments for not reforming the international monetary system to stabilise exchange rates Suggests instead that other ways to curb the growth of non tariff barriers to trade be examined Includes a list of references

Finance Against Poverty David Hulme,Paul Mosley,1996 Over the last decade the theory that poverty in the world s poorest regions could be alleviated by providing small loans to micro entrepreneurs has become increasingly popular This volume examines the effectiveness of this theory when put into practice The book presents empirical evidence drawn from comparative experiences in seven developing countries and produces some startling conclusions This work should be essential reading for all those interested in development poverty reduction social welfare and finance Volume One provides a detailed analysis of this theory and offers policy recommendations for practitioners in the field Asian and Pacific Migration Journal ,1995 Agricultural Development in South Asia Jasbir Singh,1997 Agricultural development in South Asia a comparative study in the green revolution experiences is a pioneer work of its own kind and unique in nature Its salient features are It is a comprehensive and self contained study covering an analysis of determinants of agriculture and agricultural attributes so a cause effect analysis Agricultural development regions and agro ecological regions have been delineated and specific recommendations have been made for redressing the regional imbalances in levels of agricultural development in the South Asian countries so a planning oriented study The study is based on field truthing personal communications district by district data etc The data have been presented in maps enlightening patterns and dynamics of agricultural inputs and outputs and the cartographic work is of high quality So far no such in depth study has been conducted covering only the primary activity of the sub continent and highlighting the green evolution experiences so a study related to the then and now as regards agricultural inputs and outputs It will be a study of great relevance to the SAARC nations for planning purposes and making master plans for reducing regional inequalities in agricultural performance levels Since this work is a pioneer attempt and is based on the field work and district by district data covering the green revolution period 1967 68 to 1987 88 it is a work of its own kind and unique in nature The greatest inequality in the use of agricultural inputs within the borders of South Asia is responsible for agricultural development differences These range from the poverty in densely populated Bangladesh to agriculturally high speed Punjab Haryana region in Northwestern India Moreover South Asia includes the cold empties of the high Himalayan ranges where agricultural development has a special meaning The agricultural face of South Asia has changed at a different rate because the diffusion of green revolution technology was not a universal scale As a consequence four levels of agricultural development were observed such as Very high level development with high speed change High medium level development with high medium speed change Low level development with low speed change and Very low level development with very low speed change Therefore it is no longer desirable to write only a static geography of agricultural development of South Asia and it is also equally important above all to examine explain identify and understand the recognisable ceaseless patterns of change in agricultural development levels Country Profile ,1996
