Corazon Noble:

Report on the Destruction of Manila and Japanese Atrocities Philippines. Resident Commissioner to the United States, 1945

Rampage James M. Scott, 2018-10-30 Illuminating An eloquent testament to a doomed city and its people The Wall Street Journal In early 1945 General Douglas MacArthur prepared to reclaim Manila America's Pearl of the Orient which had been seized by the Japanese in 1942 Convinced the Japanese would abandon the city he planned a victory parade down Dewey Boulevard but the enemy had other plans The Japanese were determined to fight to the death The battle to liberate Manila resulted in the catastrophic destruction of the city and a rampage by Japanese forces that brutalized the civilian population resulting in a massacre as horrific as the Rape of Nanking Drawing from war crimes testimony after action reports and survivor interviews Rampage recounts one of the most heartbreaking chapters of Pacific War history

Some Winds Blow Forever Norbert Mercado, 2017-07-26 Cara a well traveled Lithuanian American businesswoman has uncovered the truth she was asked to search for in Macau Ecological destruction results in a terrifying natural disaster SOME WINDS BLOW FOREVER is a social novel which shows the tragic consequences of ecological destruction It appeals to the present generation through the presentation of a horrifying incident in the Philippines the Ormoc flashflood which killed more than 8 000 people to help in the preservation of the environment

Yamashita's Ghost Allan A. Ryan, 2014-10-17 I don't blame my executioners I will pray God bless them So said General Tomoyuki Yamashita Japan's most accomplished military commander as he stood on the scaffold in Manila in 1946 His stoic dignity typified the man his U S Army defense lawyers had come to deeply respect in the first war crimes trial of World War II Moments later he was dead But had justice been served Allan A Ryan reopens the case against Yamashita to illuminate crucial questions and controversies that have surrounded his trial and conviction but also to deepen our understanding of broader contemporary issues especially the limits of command accountability The atrocities of 1944 and 1945 in the Philippines rape murder torture beheadings and starvation the victims often women and children were horrific They were committed by Japanese troops as General Douglas MacArthur's army tried to recapture the islands Yamashita commanded Japan's dispersed and besieged Philippine forces in that final year of the war But the prosecution conceded that he had neither ordered nor committed these crimes MacArthur charged him instead with the crime of having failed to control his troops and convened a military commission of five American generals none of them trained in the law It was the first prosecution in history of a military commander on such a charge In a turbulent and disturbing trial marked by disregard of the Army's own rules the generals delivered the verdict they knew MacArthur wanted Yamashita's lawyers appealed to the U S Supreme Court whose controversial decision upheld the conviction over the passionate dissents of two justices who invoked for the first time in U S legal history the concept of international human rights Drawing from the tribunal's transcripts Ryan vividly chronicles this tragic tale and its personalities His trenchant analysis of the case's lingering question should a commander be held accountable for the crimes of his troops even if he has no knowledge of them has profound implications for all military commanders Assemble in Agusan Valley Ray L. Burdeos,2016-02-12 First I want to begin by showing some of the sights of Agusan Valley and its beauty wonders and dangers the place was known before as an unexplored and inhospitable jungle This was where the central theme of this story hap pened Looking at the map below Agusan is surrounded by Misamis Oriental Bukidnon Davao and Surigao provinces on the island of Mindanao The valley is in the province of Agusan on the island of Mindanao the second biggest of the 7 010 islands which comprised the country of the Philippines The early inhabi tants of the valley were from different tribes Manobo Bagobo Mamanwa Banwaon and mainly of Malayan race The largest area of Agusan province is the rainforest It has deadly pre dators such as the killer bees crocodiles pythons scorpions and leech The leech is a blood sucking worm that sticks its head into the exposed parts of the human body and injects a thinning solution then slowly sucking the blood of a victim up to five times its size and sometimes more In many cases the victim is not even aware that it is happening during the attack Another annoying attack to humans is unleash by buffalo gnats a two winged insect which sometimes bites swarm all around an exposed part of a human body usually the head where and when the gnats get into the eye ear or nose a victim tend to panic and an awful consequence could happen The last but not least of the dangers is a suyak which is used as booby trap by natives for hunting wild animals for food using a razor sharp bamboo poles positioned upright above the ground And sometimes humans could be victims of this deadly animal trap
