Cops Under Fire:

The Job Charlie Bezzina, 2011 Charlie Bezzina was one of Victoria's top homicide detectives. In his 17 years in the Homicide Squad he investigated more than 300 suspicious deaths including 150 murders among them the crimes of serial killer Paul Denyer the killing of Melbourne gangland figure Alphonse Gangitano the baffling disappearances of Sarah McDiarmid and former gameshow model Jacque Ramchen and the death of former Test cricketer David Hookes. This is the never before told story of Bezzina's rise from a sheltered childhood in a Maltese family in Melbourne's western suburbs to a widely respected senior detective who served Victoria Police with distinction and unquestioned integrity for 37 years culminating in his acrimonious and highly controversial departure from the force. The Job is an explosive and intriguing account of what it takes to be a criminal investigator at the highest level.

Veteran investigative journalist Stevie Cameron first began following the story of missing women in 1998 when the odd newspaper piece appeared chronicling the disappearances of drug addicted sex trade workers from Vancouver's notorious Downtown Eastside. It was not until February 2002 that pig farmer Robert

William Pickton would be arrested and 2008 before he was found guilty on six counts of second degree murder These counts were appealed and in 2010 the Supreme Court of Canada rendered its conclusion The guilty verdict was upheld and finally this unprecedented tale of true crime could be told Covering the case of one of North America s most prolific serial killers gave Stevie Cameron access not only to the story as it unfolded over many years in two British Columbia courthouses but also to information unknown to the police and not in the transcripts of their interviews with Pickton such as from Pickton s long time best friend Lisa Yelds and from several women who survived terrifying encounters with him Cameron uncovers what was behind law enforcement s refusal to believe that a serial killer was at work
