Defending Diversity Patricia Gurin, Jeffrey S. Lehman, Earl Lewis, Eric L. Dey, Sylvia Hurtado, Gerald Gurin, 2010-04-23 Even as lawsuits challenging its admissions policies made their way through the courts the University of Michigan carried the torch for affirmative action in higher education In June 2003 the Supreme Court vindicated UM's position on affirmative action when it ruled that race may be used as a factor for universities in their admissions programs thus confirming what the UM had argued all along diversity in the classroom translates to a beneficial and wide ranging social value With the green light given to the law school's admissions policies Defending Diversity validates the positive benefits gained by students in a diverse educational setting Written by prominent University of Michigan faculty Defending Diversity is a timely response to the court's ruling Providing factual background historical setting and the psychosocial implications of affirmative action the book illuminates the many benefits of a diverse higher educational setting including preparing students to be full participants in a pluralistic democracy and demonstrates why affirmative action is necessary to achieve that diversity Defending Diversity is a significant contribution to the ongoing discussion on affirmative action in higher education Perhaps more important it is a valuable record of the history events arguments and issues surrounding the original lawsuits and the Supreme Court's subsequent ruling and helps reclaim the debate from those forces opposed to affirmative action Patricia Gurin is Professor Emerita Department of Psychology University of Michigan Jeffrey S Lehman former Dean of the University of Michigan Law School is President of Cornell University Earl Lewis is Dean of Rackham Graduate School University of Michigan
