Reconstructing Criticism Philip Smallwood, 2003 This study aims to bring the modern theory of literary criticism and Pope s Essay on Criticism of 1711 into a more productive and interesting association than critical historical structures have generally allowed Smallwood marks out in current terms and in depth the specialized theoretical and aesthetic problem of defining criticism He recognizes that criticism no more than literature or art cannot be finally codified or defined but insists on the need for clarity in the exposition of criticism s purposes and a fuller consciousness of a common community of practice available to audiences outside the academic fold Affirming the unfailing currency and utility of the term criticism as new languages have taken over the critical domain or have sought to replace or abolish literature Smallwood distinguishes between the normative definitions that are everywhere apparent in modern theory of criticism and the advantages to conceptual comprehension achieved by Pope s poetic idea of criticism in the Essay
