Recharting Media Studies Philip Bounds, 2008 Scholars in Media Studies increasingly take the view that our understanding of the history of the discipline is deeply inadequate It is now widely recognised that a large number of important media analysts have simply been omitted from the standard histories This book aims to fill in some of the gaps by examining the work of eleven neglected writers each of whom has made a seminal contribution to the analysis of the media but whose work rarely appears in student textbooks anthologies and readers In keeping with the interdisciplinary ambitions of contemporary Media Studies the selected thinkers are drawn from a wide range of historical periods and intellectual backgrounds There are chapters on sociologists creative writers cultural theorists art critics journalists and even ancient Greek philosophers The aims of the book are by no means purely antiquarian The contributors believe that a revival of interest in the work of their chosen writers can go a long way towards revitalising Media Studies especially by 1 drawing attention to a variety of theoretical and methodological approaches which have yet to be adequately exploited 2 suggesting new areas of research and 3 transforming our understanding of the historical development of Media Studies Existential Media Amanda Lagerkvist, 2022 Existential Media revisits existential philosophy through a reappraisal of Karl Jaspers philosophy and of his concept of the limit situation those ultimate moments in life of loss crisis and guilt which we are called upon to seize Introducing the field of existential media studies in conversation with disability studies the new materialism serious problems of poverty violence propaganda political intolerance poor ethics journalism education deficiencies and media concentration in the hands of an elite Ferreira debunks the myth of a free press in Latin America The diffusion of colonial presses in the New World resulted in the imposition of a structural censorship with elements that remain to this day They include ethnic and gender discrimination technological elitism state and religious authoritarianism and ideological controls Impoverished afraid of crime and violence and without access to an effective democracy ordinary Latin Americans still live silenced by ruling actors that include a dominant and concentrated media Thus not only is the press not free in Latin America but it is also itself an instrument of oppression
