Geological Survey Professional Paper ,1949 Governor's Houses and State Houses of British Colonial America, 1607-1783 Hoke P. Kimball, Bruce Henson, 2017-03-29 This comprehensive survey of British colonial governors houses and buildings used as state houses or capitols in the North American colonies begins with the founding of the Virginia Colony and ends with American independence In addition to the 13 colonies that became the United States in 1783 the study includes three colonies in present day Florida and Canada East Florida West Florida and the Province of Quebec obtained by Great Britain after the French and Indian War

A Delaware Album, 1900-1930 George David Miller, 2011-04-15 A Delaware Album 1900 1930 contains over 300 postcard photographs from the entire state taken during the period from 1900 to 1930 Arranged by subjects City and Town Views Delaware Beaches Amusements Industry and Agriculture Signs of the Times Trains Trolleys and Automobiles Water Transportation Schools Religion Businesses Hotels and Motels each photo has a caption ranging from a sentence or two to several paragraphs The book s introduction details how the cards were produced analyzes the subject matter depicted on the cards documents the history of several of the most prominent local photographers in the state whose work is found almost only on postcards and traces the evolution and popularization of postcard photography Through the photographs readers can witness the development of Delaware agriculture and fisheries the expansion of the railroad into southern Delaware the declining days of steamship service on Delaware rivers and creeks the fate of Middletown s last trolley and Delaware s unsuccessful campaign against King Alcohol They can see how Delawareans worshiped worked and shopped They can visit local amusement parks and beaches from New Castle county to Sussex county For the early decades of the twentieth century the postcard recorded every aspect of American life As local historians will tell you the photographic record of small town America during the period from 1900 to 1930 exists almost only on postcards That is why historical societies libraries and museums have begun to amass postcard collections In the last twenty years historians and scholars have increasingly turned to the postcard as a way of seeing what our past literally looked like what we enjoyed doing where we worked and played how we viewed one other what we thought was important and what prejudices we held
