

Humanism

- Criticism:

Many philosophers and writers have criticized this approach such as :

- T. S. Eliot considered humanism to be sentimental and not based realities of life.
- Postmodern critics such as Michel Foucault, have asserted that humanism posits an overarching and excessively abstract notion of humanity.
- A few of present day critics say that decisions about right and wrong must be based on the individual and common good, with no consideration given to metaphysical or supernatural beings.
